FACTS

13. On or about May 25, 2009, Plaintiff was sitting alone in his vehicle (hereinafter “the Buick”), located at the 2800 Block of Rosehill Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

14. At approximately 11:30 AM, Defendant, POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICIARDELLO, acting in his capacity as an agent, ostensible agent, servant and/or employee of Defendant, CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, without probable cause, entered into the Buick.

15. Defendant, POLICE OFFICER, THOMAS LICIARDELLO, then threw Plaintiff to the ground, causing mental and physical injuries, and handcuffed the Plaintiff, causing further injury without probable cause.

16. At that time, Defendants, POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICIARDELLO, POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SPICER, POLICE OFFICER SEAN O’MALLEY and POLICE OFFICER PERRY BETTS, unlawfully and maliciously planted numerous items of false evidence in the Plaintiff’s vicinity, to create the illusion of probable cause, to justify their grossly illegal police misconduct.

17. Defendants, POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICIARDELLO, POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SPICER, POLICE OFFICER SEAN O’MALLEY and POLICE OFFICER PERRY BETTS, then falsely arrested Plaintiff, against his will and without probable cause.

18. Plaintiff was then transported to a police department and charged with Manufacture, Delivering or Possession with Intent to Deliver Controlled Substances (35 P.S. § 780-113(a)(30)) and Possession of a Controlled Substance (35 P.S. § 780-113(a)(16)).

19. Plaintiff’s charges referenced immediately above were based upon the false evidence, unlawfully and maliciously planted in his vicinity by, and the false statements of

Defendants, POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICARDELLO, POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SPICER, POLICE OFFICER SEAN O'MALLEY and POLICE OFFICER PERRY BETTS.

20. On or about August 19, 2009, the charges against Plaintiff were dismissed for "Lack of Prosecution."

21. On or about September 14, 2009, the Commonwealth refiled the charges against Plaintiff.

22. On or about October 10, 2009, Plaintiff's charges were "Held for Court" by the Honorable Joseph C. Waters and a docket was created in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas on the next day.

23. On or about April 12, 2010, Plaintiff plead guilty to Manufacture, Delivering or Possession with Intent to Deliver Controlled Substances (in violation of 35 P.S. § 780-113(a)(30)). The remaining charges were "Nolle Prossed."

24. As a result of the conduct of the Defendants, Plaintiff served approximately seven hundred and fifty-four (754) days incarcerated.

25. On or about May 21, 2013, police officer Jeffrey Walker was arrested as a result of a sting by the Federal Bureau of Investigations. Walker's arrest was the result of an investigation by the FBI during which Walker planted drugs inside a Philadelphia resident's car and then broke into the resident's home to steal Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000). Walker was charged with Attempted Robbery Which Interferes With Interstate Commerce (in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1951(a)) and Carrying A Firearm During And In Relation To A Crime Of Violence (in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)).

26. After his arrest, now former police officer Jeffrey Walker implicated, among others, Defendants POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICARDELLO, POLICE OFFICER

MICHAEL SPICER and POLICE OFFICER PERRY BETTS, admitting that he and Defendants POLICE OFFICER THOMAS LICARDELLO, POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL SPICER and POLICE OFFICER PERRY BETTS, and other officers commonly planted false evidence on suspects, in their homes and other areas; would conduct illegal police raids without probable cause and based on false information; would lie on police paperwork; and, testify falsely. Walker pled guilty and subsequently testified in federal court against his former colleagues.

27. On July 29, 2015, Jeffrey Walker was sentenced to Forty-Two (42) months in prison on July 29, 2015.

28. On September 25, 2014, Leroy Gonzalez, by and through counsel, filed an untimely Post Conviction Relief Act (“PCRA”) petition seeking a new trial.

29. On August 7, 2015, the Honorable Sheila Woods-Skipper, without objection from the Commonwealth, granted the PCRA petition filed by Plaintiff.

30. On August 7, 2015, due, in large part, to the admissions of police misconduct by former police officer Jeffrey Walker and their own investigation into the matter, the Commonwealth agreed to voluntarily “Nolle Prose” all charges against the Plaintiff.

31. It is believed and, therefore, averred that Plaintiff was the victim of the aforementioned actions of Defendants.

32. The actions of all Defendants against the Plaintiff were undertaken knowingly, intentionally, negligently, recklessly, maliciously, in an extreme and outrageous manner and/or with the reckless disregard of the truth.

33. The actions of all Defendants against the Plaintiff described above were undertaken in the absence of probable cause or other valid or reasonable lawful basis.
