	AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - iii - - iii -

Plaintiffs Starla Rollins and Patricia Wilson, individually and on behalf of all those similarly situated, as well as on behalf of the Dignity Plan, as defined herein, by and through their attorneys, hereby allege as follows:

INTRODUCTION I. 4 1. Defendant Dignity Health, for itself and by and through its subsidiaries, 5 subordinate corporations and/or affiliates ("Dignity"), operates a health care conglomerate in 6 7 California, Arizona and Nevada and ancillary care facilities in nineteen states. This case concerns Dignity's failure to properly maintain its pension plan under the applicable federal law 8 regulating pension plans, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended 9 ("ERISA" or the "Act"). In the alternative, even if the pension plans are not subject to ERISA, 10 Dignity has breached its duties under state law. In particular, whether under federal or state law, 11 Dignity has failed to adequately fund the Plan, creating a significant risk that the Plan will be 12 unable to pay the benefits to which Dignity's employees are entitled. As demonstrated herein, 13 Dignity's failures harm its more than 80,000 participants in the Plan who rely on these promised 14 pension benefits and who count on these benefits for their retirement. 15 2. As its name implies, ERISA was crafted to protect employee retirement funds. 16 A comprehensive history of ERISA put it this way: 17 Employees should not participate in a pension plan for many years only to lose 18 their pension ... because their plan did not have the funds to meet its obligations. The major reforms in ERISA—fiduciary standards of conduct, minimum vesting 19 and funding standards, and a government-run insurance program-aimed to ensure that long-service employees actually received the benefits their retirement

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

This class action is brought on behalf of all participants, former participants, and beneficiaries of the Dignity Health Pension Plan (the "Dignity Plan" or simply the "Plan"), a defined benefit pension plan that is maintained and sponsored by Dignity and is operated as, or claimed to be, a "church plan" under ERISA (the "Class").

4. Dignity is violating numerous provisions of ERISA—including, on information and belief, underfunding the Dignity Plan by $1.8 billion—while erroneously claiming that the Plan is exempt from ERISA's protections because it is a church plan. The Dignity Plan does not meet the definition of a church plan under ERISA because a church plan generally must be "maintained" by a church or a convention or association of churches, and because Dignity, which maintains the Dignity Plan, plainly is not a church or a convention or association of churches.

11 5. Dignity may claim that the Dignity Plan is "maintained" by internal Dignity 12 retirement committees and thus qualifies for a special accommodation for plans maintained by 13 church-associated "organizations" whose "principal purpose" is funding or administering benefit 14 plans. But it is Dignity, and not any committees, that maintains the Dignity Plan, and Dignity's 15 principal purpose is providing healthcare, not funding or administering retirement plans. Even if 16 the committees did "maintain" the Plan, the Plan still would not qualify as a "church plan" 17 because these committees are internal committees of Dignity and are not distinct "organizations," as required by ERISA's "principal purpose" accommodation. 18 19 6. Furthermore, even if the Dignity Plan was somehow "maintained" by a 20 permissible entity, the church plan exemption still would not apply because other aspects of the 21 definition are not satisfied, including that Dignity is not "controlled by" or "associated with" a 22 church, within the meaning of ERISA. Dignity is a non-profit healthcare corporation, not unlike

- 23 || other non-profit healthcare systems with which Dignity competes in its commercial healthcare

1 activities. Dignity is not owned or operated by a church and does not receive funding from a 2 church. No denominational requirement exists for Dignity employees. Indeed, Dignity tells 3 prospective employees that any choice of faith, or lack thereof, is not a factor in the recruiting 4 and hiring of Dignity employees. In choosing to recruit and hire from the population at large, 5 Dignity must also be willing to accept neutral, generally applicable regulations, such as ERISA, 6 imposed to protect those employees' legitimate interests. Moreover, Dignity is affiliated with 7 numerous healthcare facilities, including many that claim to be secular and have no relationship 8 with any church.

9 7. Likewise, Dignity's internal Retirement Committees are not "controlled by" or 10 "associated with" a church, within the meaning of ERISA.

8. Even if, however, the Dignity Plan could otherwise qualify for church plan status, it would be specifically excluded from such status because substantially all of the participants in the Plan are not employed by either the Catholic Church or an organization that is controlled by or associated with the Catholic Church, within the meaning of ERISA. Dignity is not controlled by the Catholic Church and is not "associated with" the Catholic Church within the meaning of ERISA because it does not share common religious bonds and convictions with the Catholic Church.

18 9. A sampling of facts reveals Dignity as a non-profit health care network, not unlike 19 other non-profit health care networks:

20 21 A. Ownership, Operation, Funding. It is not owned or operated by the Catholic Church and does not receive funding from the Catholic Church. ;

B. Employees. With respect to recruiting and hiring its employees—those who then become Dignity Plan participants—Dignity informs prospective employees that Catholic faith is not a factor in the hiring process. Like many employers, Dignity promotes itself by insisting that it hires regardless of whether there are any common religious convictions. In other words, Dignity recruits retirement plan participants, in part, by assuring them that their religiosity, or absence thereof, is not relevant. Moreover, many of Dignity's employees became employees of Dignity as a result of Dignity's acquisition of hospitals and healthcare facilities that do not purport, and have never purported, to adhere to the moral and doctrinal teaching of the Catholic Church and that Dignity continues to operate in such fashion;

9C.Growth Model. Over the years the Dignity network has grown, in large10part, through the acquisition of hospitals and ancillary care facilities that had no claimed11ties to religion. Indeed, Dignity's current growth model specifically targets the12acquisition of additional healthcare facilities that have no claimed ties to religion. These13facilities do not purport, and have never purported, to adhere to the moral and doctrinal14teaching of the Catholic Church, and Dignity continues to operate these facilities in such15fashion; and 16D.The Catholic Church Has Distanced Itself from Dignity. Following17Dignity's substantial corporate reorganization in 2012, numerous official statements18made clear that Dignity is not associated with the Catholic Church, including: (i) the19Archbishop of San Francisco's declaration that Dignity's name "will not suggest a direct20association with the Catholic Church" and that Dignity "will not be recognized as21Catholic"; (ii) a statement of the Phoenix Diocese that Dignity is "secular"; and (iii) a22statement of two moral theologians that Dignity "will not be Catholic."

1	10. Even if the Court determined that the Dignity Plan fell within the scope of the
2	church plan exemption, the church plan exemption would then be, as applied to Dignity, an
3	unconstitutional accommodation in violation of the Establishment clause of the First
4	Amendment. Dignity claims, in effect, that it must be relieved of its ERISA financial obligations
5	because Dignity claims certain religious beliefs. The Establishment Clause, however, does not
6	allow such an economic preference for religious adherents that is not available to non-adherents,
7	at least where, as here, an accommodation is not required to relieve a substantial burden on
8	religious practice or to avoid government entanglement in religion. Extension of the church plan
9	exemption to Dignity: (A) is not necessary to further the stated purposes of the exemption;
10	(B) harms Dignity workers; (C) puts Dignity competitors at an economic disadvantage;
11	(D) relieves Dignity of no genuine religious burden created by ERISA; and (E) creates more
12	government entanglement with alleged religious beliefs than compliance with ERISA creates.
13	11. Dignity's claim of church plan status for its defined benefit pension plan fails
14	under both ERISA and the First Amendment.
15	12. Plaintiffs seek an Order requiring Dignity to comply with ERISA and afford the
16	Class all the protections of ERISA with respect to the Dignity Plan, as well as an Order finding
17	that the church plan exemption, as claimed by Dignity, is unconstitutional because it violates the
18	Establishment Clause of the First Amendment.
19	13. Yet even if the church plan exemption did apply to the Dignity Plan, and even if
20	the application of the exemption were constitutionally permissible, Dignity nonetheless has
21	breached its contractual obligations under the Dignity Plan documents and has breached its
22	common law fiduciary duties by failing to make required contributions to the Dignity Plan trust.
23	By refusing to fund the Dignity Plan, in contravention of its obligations under the Dignity Plan

1 documents, its fiduciary duties, and its repeated promises to Dignity Plan participants, Dignity 2 has left the Dignity Plan severely underfunded. On information and belief, the Dignity Plan trust 3 currently holds assets worth only approximately 72% of the accrued benefit obligations. 4 Because of Dignity's failures to fund the Dignity Plan, there exists a substantial risk that the 5 Dignity Plan will be unable to pay the accrued pension benefits to which Plaintiffs and the other 6 Class members are entitled. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek an Order requiring Dignity to make all 7 contributions to the Dignity Plan trust necessary to fund, on an actuarial basis, all accrued 8 pension benefits.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 14. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this is a civil action arising under the laws of the United States and pursuant to 29 U.S.C.
§ 1132(e)(1), which provides for federal jurisdiction of actions brought under Title I of ERISA.
This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
§ 1367 because the state law claims are so related to Plaintiffs' other claims in this action that they form part of the same case or controversy.

16 15. In addition, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction under the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), because at least one class member is of diverse citizenship from one defendant, there are 100 or more class members nationwide, and the aggregate amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000. In addition, on information and belief, fewer than two-thirds of the members of all proposed plaintiff classes in the aggregate are citizens of California.

16. This Court has personal jurisdiction over all Defendants because ERISA provides for nationwide service of process. ERISA § 502(e)(2), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(2). All of the Defendants are either residents of the United States or subject to service in the United States, and the Court therefore has personal jurisdiction over them. The Court also has personal jurisdiction over them pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure ("Rule") 4(k)(1)(A) because they would all be subject to a court of general jurisdiction in California as a result of the individual Defendants' states of residence, and Defendant Dignity transacting business in and having significant contacts with this District.

Case 3:13-cv-01450-JST Document 243 Filed 11/03/17 Page 11 of 80

6 17. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to ERISA section 502(e)(2), 29 U.S.C.
7 § 1132(e)(2), because (a) the Plan is administered in this District, (b) some or all of the violations
8 of ERISA took place in this District, and/or (c) Dignity may be found in this District.

9 18. Venue is also proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because Dignity 10 is headquartered in this District, and systematically and continuously does business in this 11 District, and because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims 12 asserted herein occurred within this District.

III. PARTIES

19. Plaintiff Starla Rollins. Plaintiff Starla Rollins was employed by Dignity as the 14 MCH Billing Coordinator at San Bernardino Community Hospital in San Bernardino, California 15 from 1986 until 2012. Plaintiff Rollins is a participant in the Dignity Plan maintained by Dignity 16 because she is or will become eligible for pension benefits under the Plan to be paid at normal 17 retirement age. Additionally and alternatively, Plaintiff has a colorable claim to benefits under 18 the Dignity Plan maintained by Dignity and is a participant within the meaning of ERISA section 19 3(7), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(7), and is therefore entitled to maintain an action with respect to the 20Dignity Plan pursuant to ERISA section 502(a)(1)(A)-(B), (a)(2)-(3), (c)(1), (c)(3), 29 U.S.C. 21 1132(a)(1)(A)-(B), (a)(2)-(3), (c)(1), (c)(3).22

23 20. Plaintiff Patricia Wilson. Plaintiff Patricia Wilson has been employed since 24 1995 as a registered nurse at Chandler Regional Medical Center in Chandler, Arizona, which 1 Dignity acquired in 1999. Plaintiff Wilson is a participant in the Dignity Plan maintained by 2 Dignity because she is or will become eligible for pension benefits under the Plan to be paid at 3 normal retirement age. Plaintiff Wilson accrues benefits in the Dignity Plan under the "PEP 4 Plus" formula for benefit accrual, as it may have been amended. Additionally and alternatively, 5 Plaintiff has a colorable claim to benefits under the Dignity Plan maintained by Dignity and is a 6 participant within the meaning of ERISA section 3(7), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(7), and is therefore 7 entitled to maintain an action with respect to the Dignity Plan pursuant to ERISA section 8 502(a)(1)(A)-(B), (a)(2)-(3), (c)(1), (c)(3), 29 U.S.C. 1132(a)(1)(A)-(B), (a)(2)-(3), (c)(1), (a)(2)-(3), (c)(1), (c)(3), 9 (c)(3).

Defendant Dignity. Dignity is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation organized under, and governed by, the California Corporations Code, including Division 2 thereof, the California Nonprofit Corporation Law, and is headquartered in San Francisco, California.
 Dignity is the employer responsible for maintaining the Dignity Plan and is, therefore, the plan sponsor of the Dignity Plan within the meaning of ERISA section 3(16)(B), 29 U.S.C.
 § 1002(16)(B).

16 22. Defendant Herb J. Vallier. Defendant Vallier was Executive Vice President and 17 Chief Human Resources Officer for Dignity from at least 2010 until January, 2013. In 2010 18 Defendant Vallier received total compensation in excess of $580,000. Upon information and 19 belief, Defendant Vallier's job responsibilities included fiduciary oversight of the Dignity Plan, 20 and Defendant Vallier is a fiduciary of the Plan within the meaning of ERISA.

21 23. Defendant Darryl Robinson. Defendant Darryl Robinson is Executive Vice 22 President and Chief Human Resources Officer for Dignity, and has held that position since 23 August, 2013. In 2014 Defendant Robinson received total compensation in excess of

$1.4 million. Upon information and belief, Defendant Robinson's's job responsibilities include fiduciary oversight of the Dignity Plan, and Defendant Robinson is a fiduciary of the Plan within the meaning of ERISA.

24. Defendant Dignity Health Retirement Plans Subcommittee. On information and belief, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee of the Dignity Board has appointed a subcommittee that Dignity describes as the Dignity Health Retirement Plans Subcommittee (the "Retirement Committee"). The Retirement Committee is the person specifically designated as the "administrator" by the terms of the instrument under which the Dignity Plan is operated, as provided in ERISA section 3(16)(A)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(3)(16)(A)(i).

10 25. Defendants John and Jane Does 1-20. Defendants John and Jane Does 1-20 are 11 individuals who through discovery are found to have fiduciary responsibilities with respect to the 12 Dignity Plan and are fiduciaries within the meaning of ERISA. These individuals will be added 13 by name as defendants in this action upon motion by Plaintiffs at an appropriate time.

14 Defendants Vallier, Robinson, and John and Jane Does 1-20 are referred to herein collectively as 15 the "Individual Defendants."

IV. THE BACKGROUND OF THE CHURCH PLAN EXEMPTION

17 A. The Adoption of ERISA

26. Following years of study and debate, and with broad bi-partisan support, Congress adopted ERISA in 1974, and the statute was signed into law by President Ford on Labor Day of that year. Among the factors that led to the enactment of ERISA were the widely publicized failures of certain defined benefit pension plans, especially the plan for employees of Studebaker Corporation, an automobile manufacturing company which defaulted on its pension obligations in 1965. See generally John H. Langbein et al., *Pension and Employee Benefit Law*67-71 (6th ed. 2015).

27. As originally adopted in 1974, and today, ERISA protects the retirement savings 1 2 of pension plan participants in a variety of ways. As to participants in traditional defined benefit 3 pension plans, such as the Plan at issue here, ERISA mandates, among other things, that such plans be currently funded and actuarially sound, that participants' accruing benefits vest pursuant 4 5 to certain defined schedules, that the administrators of the plan report certain information to 6 participants and to government regulators, that the fiduciary duties of prudence, diversification, 7 loyalty, and so on apply to those who manage the plans, and that the benefits promised by the 8 plans be guaranteed, up to certain limits, by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation 9 ("PBGC"). See, e.g., ERISA §§ 303, 203, 101-06, 404-06, 409, 4007, 4022, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1083, 10 1053, 1021-26, 1104-06, 1109, 1307, 1322.

11 28. ERISA is centered on pension plans, and particularly defined benefit pension 12 plans, as is reflected in the very title of the Act, which addresses "retirement income security."
13 However, ERISA also subjects to federal regulation defined contribution pension plans (such as 14 401(k) plans) and welfare plans, which provide health care, disability, severance and related non15 retirement benefits. ERISA § 3(34), (1), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(34), (1).

16 B. The Scope of the Church Plan Exemption in 1974

29. As adopted in 1974, ERISA provided an exemption for certain plans, in particular governmental plans and church plans. Plans that met the statutory definitions were exempt from all of ERISA's substantive protections for participants. ERISA § 4(b)(2), 29 U.S.C. § 1003(b)(2) (exemption from Title I of ERISA); ERISA § 4021(b)(3), 29 U.S.C. § 1321(b)(3) (exemption from Title IV).

1	30. ERISA defined a "church plan" as a plan "established and maintained for its .
2	employees by a church or by a convention or associations of churches." ¹
3	31. Under the 1974 legislation, although a church plan was required to be established
4	and maintained by a church, it could also include employees of certain pre-existing agencies of
5	such church (i.e. , there was a grandfather provision), but only until 1982 (i.e. , there was a sunset
6	provision). ² ERISA § 3(33)(C) (1974), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C) (1974) (Pub. L. No. 93-406,
7	§ 3(33), 88 Stat. 829 (1974), (current version as amended at 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33) (2012)). Thus,
8	under the 1974 legislation, a pension plan that was not established and maintained by a church
9	could not be a church plan. Id .
10	C. The Changes to the Church Plan Exemption in 1980
11	32. The church plan definition was amended in 1980. Multiemployer Pension Plan
12	Amendments Act of 1980 ("MPPAA"), Pub.L. No. 96-364, § 407, 94 Stat. 1208 (1980). The
13	amended definition is current law.
14	33. The grandfather and sunset provisions, concerning employees of church agencies, 15	were dropped. Congress achieved this by including a new definition of "employee" in
16	subsection (C)(ii)(II) of section 3(33) of ERISA. 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(ii)(II) (1980) (current
17	version at 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(ii)(II) (2012)). As amended, an "employee" of a church or a
18	convention/association of churches includes an employee of an organization "which is controlled
19	by or associated with a church or a convention or association of churches." Id. The phrase
20	"associated with" is then defined in ERISA section 3(33)(C)(iv) to include only those 21
22	¹ ERISA § 3(33)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(A). ERISA is codified in both the labor and tax
23	provisions of the United States Code, titles 29 and 26 respectively. Many ERISA provisions appear in both titles. For example, the essentially identical definition of church plan in the Internal Beverue Code ("IBC") is found at 26 U S C $\lesssim 414(c)$
24	Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") is found at 26 U.S.C. § 414(e). ² H.R. Rep. No. 93-1280 (1974) (Conf. Rep.), reprinted in 1974 U.S.C.C.A.N. 5038, 5044.

2	convention or association of churches." 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(iv) (1980) (current version at
3	29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(iv) (2012)). Accordingly, this new definition of "employee" permitted
4	a "church plan" to include among its participants employees of organizations controlled by or
5	associated with the church, convention, or association of churches.
6	34. The 1980 amendments also permitted church plans to be maintained either by a
7	church or by:
8 9 10 11	[A]n organization, whether a civil law corporation or otherwise, the principal purpose or function of which is the administration or funding of a plan or program for the provision of retirement benefits or welfare benefits , or both, for the employees of a church or a convention or association of churches, if such organization is controlled by or associated with a church or a convention or association of churches.
12	ERISA § 3(33)(C)(i) (1980), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i) (1980) (emphasis added) (current
13	version at 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i) (2012). For convenience, this type of organization is
14	referred to here, as it is in the case law, as a "principal-purpose organization." 35. Finally, the Supreme Court recently interpreted the 1980 amendment and held that
15	a church plan that is maintained by a principal-purpose organization need not have been
16	established by a church. Advocate Health Care Network v. Stapleton, 137 S. Ct. 1652, 1658
17	(2017). ³ The Supreme Court expressly declined to interpret the meaning of "principal-purpose
18	organization" or to express an opinion on whether the plans at issue in the cases before it – which
19 20	included the Dignity Plan itself – were maintained by principal-purpose organizations. Id. at
20	 1657 n.2. ³ Advocate consolidated appeals from cases in three circuits, including the Ninth Circuit opinion in this case. Kaplan v. Saint Peter's Healthcare Sys., 810 F.3d 175 (3d Cir. 2015); Stapleton v. Advocate Health Care Network, 817 F.3d 517 (7th Cir. 2016); Rollins v. 36. However, a typical hospital benefit plan is plainly not maintained by a principal-1 2 purpose organization. It is maintained by the hospital itself. Even if the hospital were 3 "controlled by or associated with" a church, it cannot maintain its own "church plan" because its 4 principal purpose or function is the provision of health care, not "the administration or funding of 5 a plan or program for the provision of retirement benefits." 37. Defendant Dignity is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation organized under, and 9 governed by, the California Corporations Code, including Division 2 thereof, the California 10 Nonprofit Corporation Law, and it operates 39 hospitals in California, Arizona and Nevada and 11 over 400 ancillary health care facilities in twenty-two states which provide urgent care, 12 outpatient services, home healthcare services, occupational healthcare, preventive care and 13 rehabilitative care. As of its fiscal 2016 year end, Dignity had approximately $17 billion in 14 assets, and operating revenues of approximately $12.6 billion. 15 38. Dignity is currently the fifth largest healthcare system in the United States. 16 39. Dignity employs approximately 60,000 employees, and there are approximately 17 80,000 participants in the Plan. 18 40. Since its founding in 1986 Dignity has pursued a growth plan which has included 19 the acquisition of more than 150 ancillary healthcare facilities and the following hospitals that 20have no claimed ties to religion: 21 Barrow Neurological Institute, Phoenix, Arizona in 1986; i) 22 Bakersfield Memorial Hospital, Bakersfield, California in 1996; ii) 23 Sequoia Hospital, Redwood City, California in 1996; iii) 24 LAW OFFICES OF LAW OFFICES OF AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT COHEN MILSTEIN SELLERS & TOLL. 7	equity securities, and hedge funds.
8	44. The principal purpose or function of Dignity is not the administration or funding
9	of a plan or program for the provision of retirement or welfare benefits, or both, for the 10	employees of a church or a convention or association of churches.
11	45. Rather, the principal purpose or function of Dignity is the provision of health
12	care. According to Article III of Dignity's Bylaws:
13 14	This Corporation is organized as a California public benefit Corporation and the Corporation's primary purpose is to provide health care services and related support functions. This Corporation operates, directly or through subsidiaries or affiliates, both
15 16	Catholic sponsored health care services as well as health care services that are not Catholic sponsored, working together to provide a continuum of compassionate, high quality care to its various local communities. Such collaboration enables responsible stewardship of health care resources and helps provide access to care to a wide range of
17	persons, including persons who are poor and disenfranchised.46. The present governance and leadership of Dignity is composed of two groups:
18	(i) the Board of Directors, which holds all key operational powers, including approving long-
19	range strategic plans, the allocation of capital, joint ventures, and major acquisitions and sales;

2	are lay persons. The Executive Leadership Team is comprised entirely of lay persons.
3	48. The Executive Officers of Dignity that make up the Executive Leadership Team
4	receive compensation in line with executive officers of large publicly traded companies. For
5	example, in 2014 the President and CEO received $7.6 million in total compensation, the CFO
6	received $2.6 million in total compensation, and the COO received total compensation of
7	$5.3 million. In addition, at least thirteen other officers received over $1 million in
8	compensation in 2014.
9	49. Dignity is not owned by the Catholic Church. Dignity does not receive funding
10	from the Catholic Church or the other religious organizations that may have once owned and
11	operated hospitals that have since been acquired by Dignity.
12	50. Dignity is not owned by a church.
13	51. Dignity does not receive funding from any church.
14	52. Dignity does not claim that any church has any liability for Dignity's debts or
15	obligations.
16	53. No church has any role in the maintenance and/or administration of the Dignity

18	54. The governance of Dignity, including the management of Dignity's affairs, is
19	vested in Dignity's Board of Directors, not in any church.

57. Dignity is not a convention or association of churches.

2 58. In the annual returns of a tax-exempt organization (Form 990) that Dignity files 3 with the IRS, Dignity claims that the reason for its public charity status is that it is "[a] hospital 4 or a cooperative hospital service organization described in [26 U.S.C.] section 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)." 5 59. Dignity does not impose any religious beliefs or practices on its clients/patients, and specifically offers spiritual care to its patients without regard to any religion or creed. For 6 7 those patients who are religious, Dignity offers contact with the minister, priest, rabbi, or 8 spiritual leader of their patients' choosing. In some of its hospitals, Dignity provides a 9 nondenominational chapel, as many airports do.

10 60. Dignity purports to disclose, and not keep confidential, its own highly complex 11 financial records. For example, Dignity is required and in some cases has voluntarily elected to 12 comply with a broad array of elaborate state and federal regulations and reporting requirements, 13 including Medicare and Medicaid. In addition, Dignity makes public its consolidated financial 14 statements, which describe Dignity's representations as to its own highly complex operations and 15 financial affairs. Finally, Dignity financial information is regularly disclosed to the rating 16 agencies and the public when tax exempt revenue bonds are issued.

The Dignity Plan

18 61. Dignity maintains the Dignity Plan, which is a non-contributory defined benefit 19 pension plan covering substantially all of its employees.

20 62. The Dignity Plan incorporates a number of other plans that have been merged into certain past service benefits for employees already in cash balance formulas (the "2011

3	64. The Dignity Plan is, in part, a cash balance plan, because, to the extent a cash
4	balance formula applies to a participant, it computes accrued benefits by reference to
5	hypothetical account balances or equivalent amounts and is therefore required to comply with the
6	special rules for cash balance plans, including but not limited to ERISA section 203(f)(2),
7	29 U.S.C. § 1053(f)(2), which requires that any employee who has completed at least 3 years of
8	service has a nonforfeitable right to 100 percent of the employee's accrued benefit derived from
9	employer contributions. In other words, the maximum vesting period allowable for a cash
10	balance plan is 3 years.
11	65. The Dignity Plan generally requires participants in the Plan to complete 5 years of 12	service to be vested.
13	66. The Dignity Plan was amended and restated as of January 1, 2014, while this
14	litigation was pending.

1	C. The Dignity Plan Meets the Definition of an ERISA Defined Benefit Plan
2	83. The Dignity Plan is a plan, fund, or program that was established or maintained
3	by Dignity and which, by its express terms and surrounding circumstances, provides retirement
4	income to employees and/or results in the deferral of income by employees to the termination of
5	their employment or beyond.
6	84. The Dignity Plan meets the definition of "employee pension benefit plan" within
7	the meaning of ERISA section 3(2)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(2)(A).
8	85. The Dignity Plan does not provide for an individual account for each participant
9	and does not provide benefits solely upon the amount contributed to a participant's account.
10	As such, the Dignity Plan is a "defined benefit plan" within the meaning of ERISA section 3(35),
11	29 U.S.C. § 1002(35), and is not an individual account plan or a "defined contribution plan"
12	within the meaning of ERISA section 3(34), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(34).
13	1. The Defendants Are Each ERISA Fiduciaries
14	a. Nature of Fiduciary Status
15	86. Every ERISA plan must have "one or more named fiduciaries." ERISA
16	§ 402(a)(1), 29 U.S.C. 1102(a)(1). The person named as the "administrator" in the plan
17	instrument is automatically a fiduciary and, in the absence of such a designation, the sponsor is
18	the administrator. ERISA § 3(16)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(16)(A).
19	87. ERISA treats as fiduciaries not only persons explicitly named as fiduciaries under
20	section 402(a)(1), 29 U.S.C. § 1102(a)(1), but also any other persons who in fact perform
21	fiduciary functions. Thus, a person is a fiduciary to the extent "(i) he exercises any discretionary
22	authority or discretionary control respecting management of such plan or exercises any authority
23	or control respecting management or disposition of its assets, (ii) he renders investment advice
24	for a fee or other compensation, direct or indirect, with respect to any moneys or other property of such plan, or has any authority or responsibility to do so, or (iii) he has any discretionary authority or discretionary responsibility in the administration of such plan." ERISA § 3(21)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A).

4 88. Each of the Defendants was a fiduciary with respect to the Dignity Plan and owed 5 fiduciary duties to the Plan and its participants and beneficiaries under ERISA in the manner and 6 to the extent set forth in the Plan's documents and/or through their conduct.

89. As fiduciaries, Defendants were required by ERISA section 404(a)(1), 29 U.S.C.
$1104(a)(1), to manage and administer the Plan and the Plan's investments solely in the interest of the Plan's participants and beneficiaries and with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims.

90. Plaintiffs do not allege that each Defendant was a fiduciary with respect to all aspects of the Plan's management and administration. Rather, as set forth below, Defendants were fiduciaries to the extent of the specific fiduciary discretion and authority assigned to or exercised by each of them, and, as further set forth below, the claims against each Defendant are based on such specific discretion and authority.

17 91. ERISA permits fiduciary functions to be delegated to insiders without an 18 automatic violation of the rules against prohibited transactions, ERISA section 408(c)(3), 19 29 U.S.C. § 1108(c)(3), but insider fiduciaries, like external fiduciaries, must act solely in the 20 interest of participants and beneficiaries, not in the interest of the plan sponsor.

b. Defendants Are Each ERISA Fiduciaries

92. As Defendant Dignity is and has been the plan sponsor of the Dignity Plan, Defendant Dignity is an "administrator" of the Dignity Plan within the meaning of ERISA section 3(16)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(16)(A); a named fiduciary within the meaning of ERISA

95. Retirement Committee. Alternatively, upon information and belief, the terms of the instrument, or instruments, under which the Dignity Plan is operated specifically designate the Retirement Committee as the Plan Administrator within the meaning of ERISA section 3(16)(A)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(16)(A)(i). As such, Defendant Retirement Committee is a named fiduciary within the meaning of ERISA section 402, 29 U.S.C. § 1102, and a functional fiduciary

8 99. The Retirement Committee does not have the power to add to, subtract from, or 10 100. Defendant Retirement Committee is a fiduciary with respect to the Dignity Plan

11 within the meaning of ERISA section 3(21)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A), because it exercises
12 discretionary authority or discretionary control respecting management of the Dignity Plan, 13 exercises authority and control respecting management or disposition of the Dignity Plan's 14 assets, and/or has discretionary authority or discretionary responsibility in the administration of 15 the Dignity Plan.

101. Defendant Vallier. As Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer of Dignity, Defendant Vallier is also a fiduciary with respect to the Dignity Plan within the meaning of ERISA section 3(21), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21), because, upon information and

2. Dignity Operates Other ERISA Plans

104. Although Dignity, including specifically through its Human Resources Department and the Retirement Committee, maintains that its defined benefit pension plan is exempt from ERISA coverage as a church plan, it claims ERISA status for its health and welfare benefit plans, dependent life insurance plans, and short term disability plans and complies with ERISA requirements for those plans, including by filing form 5500's annually with the Internal Revenue Service and the U.S. Department of Labor and making its records subject to inspection upon request.

18 105. Compliance with ERISA creates no undue, genuine burden on any religious 19 practice of Dignity, as evidenced by Dignity's claimed compliance with ERISA for its health and 20 welfare benefit plans, dependent life insurance plans, and short term disability plans.

Dignity Does Not Disclose Information About the Dignity Plan or the Benefits Available to Participants Under the Plan

106. Plaintiff Rollins requested in writing that the Plan Administrator for the Dignity Pension Plans provide her with a benefit statement that included a description of all pension benefits to which she is entitled under the Dignity Plan.

5 107. Plaintiff Rollins also requested that the Plan Administrator for the Dignity Plan 6 provide her with the following materials regarding any of the Dignity plans under which she was 7 entitled to receive pension benefits: (1) the latest updated summary plan description; (2) any 8 summaries of material modifications; (3) the latest annual report, (4) any terminal report; (5) the 9 latest annual financial report; and (6) the bargaining agreement, trust agreement, contract, or 10 other instruments under which such plans are established or operated, and any applicable 11 amendments. 12 108. After more than 90 days had elapsed since Plaintiff Rollins made these requests in 13 writing to the Plan Administrator of the Dignity Plan, Plaintiff Rollins had not been provided 14 with a response and had not received a benefits statement or any of the requested materials. 15 4. Dignity Drastically Reduced Accrual of Retirement Benefits Without Giving Notice, in Violation of ERISA 16 109. The Dignity Plan provides several different formulas for accrual of benefits 17 depending on, among other things, the occupation and location of a particular type of employee. 18 110. Prior to April, 2014, the Dignity Plan set out a formula for accrual of benefits 19 designated as "PEP Plus," which applied to registered nurses covered under a collective 20 bargaining agreement, as well as certain other registered nurses who were not in the union, 21 including Plaintiff Wilson. The PEP Plus formula provided for small accruals of benefits in the 22

23 early years of a participant's employment, but the accruals increased dramatically during the

 $_{24}$ || later years, rewarding long-time employees.

1 111. The PEP Plus formula is referred to as a "backloaded" formula. A "backloaded"
 2 formula is prohibited by ERISA unless the accrual of benefits under the formula meets at least 3 one of three tests. ERISA § 204(b)(1), 29 U.S.C. § 1054(b)(1).

112. Dignity was aware that the PEP Plus backloaded formula violated ERISA. As Christine Doten of Towers Watson, the Dignity Plan actuary, explained to Dignity in May, 2009, the Dignity Plan did not comply with ERISA, and in particular the PEP subpart of the Plan "would not pass accrual rules under Section 411 of the code," noting that the "PEP formula is fairly back loaded ." Decl. of M. Gerend in Supp. Pl.'s Mot. for Permanent Inj. & Partial J., Ex. E (May 22, 2009 email exchange between Christine Doten and Mary Connick), at DIGNITY00018324-25, ECF No. 181-5.

11 113. In April, 2014, Dignity amended the Dignity Plan, retroactive to January 1, 2014, 12 to change or eliminate the "PEP Plus" benefit accrual formula on a prospective basis, such that 13 new benefits accrued on or after January 1, 2014, were no longer "backloaded" but increased at a 14 steady rate over time. The result of this change could have a dramatic negative impact on Plan 15 participants.

16 114. Under the new formula, a new employee will accrue more benefits during the 17 early years of employment than she would have under the old formula but will accrue less total 18 benefits during the entire course of a 30-year career. However, employees who had worked for 19 Dignity for a number of years at the time Dignity amended the Plan are particularly harmed by 20 this change. This is because, prior to 2014, these employees earned benefits under the old back-21 loaded formula. Accordingly, these employees will have earned disproportionately lower 22 benefits at the front end of their careers and have now been deprived of the substantial increase 23 in accrual rate at the end of their careers under the old backloaded plan.

The blue line represents accrual of benefits over a 30-year career exclusively under the old PEP Plus formula, while the straight red line represents accrual of benefits over a 30-year career exclusively under the formula Dignity adopted in 2014. The yellow line, however, demonstrates the negative impact of Dignity's amendment on employees who began their careers under the old Pep Plus formula and were transferred to the new straight-line formula mid-career.

15 116. This specific example shows what happened to a hypothetical employee who was a third of the way through her 30-year career when the change was made in 2014, and who finishes her career with final average pay of $100,000. This employee will finish her career with monthly benefits that are $780 less than she would have received had she remained under the PEP Plus formula, and $515 less than she would have received had the amended formula been applied retroactively. The following is an abbreviated chart comparing the accrual of benefits under that scenario at intervals of five years:

benefits can be changed by amendment to a plan, but if the amendment significantly reduces the rate of future benefit accruals, the plan administrator is required to give notices to, among other parties, participants in the plan who are affected by the change.

- 120. Because the new formula significantly reduced the rate of future benefit accruals, under ERISA, Dignity was required to, but failed to, give notice of the change to the benefit accrual formula to affected persons before it took effect. Instead, Dignity relied solely on the union to give notice of the change in the PEP Plus formula to union members, and did not give notice to non-union nurses affected by the change.
- 121. Plaintiff Wilson only discovered by chance that the PEP Plus formula had been amended over a year later, on May 8, 2015, when she reviewed a summary plan description that had been posted online by Dignity.

1	5. The Dignity Plan Is Not a Church Plan
2	122. Dignity claims the Dignity Plan is a church plan under ERISA section 3(33),
3	29 U.S.C. § 1002(33), and the analogous section of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"), and is
4	therefore exempt from ERISA's coverage under ERISA section 4(b)(2), 29 U.S.C. § 1003(b)(2).
5	a. Only Two Types of Entities May Maintain a Church Plan and Dignity Is Neither
6	123. Under section 3(33) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33), only the following two
7	provisions address which types of entities may maintain a church plan:
8 9	• First , under ERISA section 3(33)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(A), a church plan may be maintained by a church or convention or association of churches; and
10	• Second , under ERISA section 3(33)(C)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i), a church plan may be maintained by an organization , the principal purpose or function of
11	which is the administration or funding of a retirement plan, if such organization is controlled by or associated with a church or convention or association of churches.
12	124. Although other portions of ERISA section 3(33)(C) address, among other matters,
13	who can be participants in church plans—in other words, which employees can be in church
14	plans, etc.—these other portions of ERISA section 3(33)(C) do not add any other type of entity
15	that may maintain a church plan. ERISA § 3(33)(C), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C).
16	125. The Dignity Plan does not qualify as a church plan under either ERISA section
17	3(33)(A) or (C)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 3(33)(A) or (C)(i).
18	126. First, the Dignity Plan is not maintained by any church or convention or
19	association of churches within the meaning of ERISA section 3(33)(A), 29 U.S.C.
20	§ 1002(33)(A). The Dignity Plan is maintained by Dignity for its own, or its affiliates' own,
21	employees. Because Dignity is not a church or a convention or association of churches, and does
22	not claim to be a church or a convention or association of churches, the Dignity Plan may not qualify as a church plan within the meaning of ERISA section 3(33)(A), 29 U.S.C.
24
	AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT - 30

 $ 1002(33)(A).

3 127. Second, the Dignity Plan is not maintained by an "organization" described in 4 ERISA section 3(33)(C)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i)—i.e., one whose principal purpose or 5 function is the administration or funding of a plan or program for the provision of retirement 6 benefits or welfare benefits, or both. Because the principal purpose or function of Dignity is to 7 provide healthcare services rather than to administer or fund benefit plans, the Dignity Plan may 8 not qualify as a church plan within the meaning of ERISA section 3(33)(C)(i), 29 U.S.C. 9 § 1002(33)(C)(i). 10 128. In the alternative, to the extent Dignity claims that the Dignity Plan is "maintained" by a principal-purpose organization within the meaning of ERISA section 11 12 3(33)(C)(i) because it is administered by a committee within Dignity that has a principal purpose 13 of administering benefit plans, the claim fails because the committee purportedly 14 "administering" the Dignity Plan does not have the full range of powers and responsibilities 15 required to "maintain" a plan. The entity that maintains the plan "has the primary ongoing 16 responsibility (and potential liability) to plan participants." Advocate Healthcare Network, 17 137 S. Ct. at 1661. The only entity with the power to "maintain" the Dignity Plan, which 18 includes the power to fund, continue, amend, and/or terminate the Plan, is Dignity. The claim 19 further fails because even if a committee within Dignity "maintained" the Plan, such an internal 20 committee of Dignity does not qualify as a distinct principal-purpose "organization" within the 21 meaning of ERISA section 3(33)(C)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i). 22

Even if the Dignity Plan Were Maintained by a Permissible Entity, It b. Nonetheless Fails to Satisfy Other Elements of the Church Plan Definition.

3	129. Under both ERISA section $3(33)(A)$ and $(C)(i)$, a church plan must be maintained
4	for the employees of a church or a convention or association of churches. 29 U.S.C.
5	§ 1002(33)(A), (C)(i). The Dignity Plan does not qualify. The 80,000 participants in the Dignity
6	Plan are or were the employees of Dignity, a non-profit healthcare system. Dignity is not a
7	church or a convention or association of churches, and its employees are not employees of a
8	church or a convention or association of churches within the meaning of ERISA.
9	130. Under ERISA section 3(33)(C)(ii), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(ii), however, an
10	employee of a tax exempt organization that is controlled by or associated with a church or a
11	convention or association of churches also may be considered an employee of a church. The
12	Dignity Plan also fails this part of the definition, because Dignity is not controlled by or
13	associated with a church or a convention or association of churches within the meaning of
14	ERISA.
15	131. Dignity is organized as a non-profit corporation under California law.
16	132. Dignity is governed by its Board of Directors and operated by a lay Executive
17	Leadership Team selected by Dignity's Board of Directors.
18	133. Dignity's Board of Directors owes fiduciary duties to the non-profit corporation.
19	134. Dignity is not controlled by a church or convention or association of churches.
20	135. Dignity is not owned by a church or convention or association of churches.
21	136. Dignity is not operated by a church or convention or association of churches.
22	137. Dignity does not receive funding from a church or convention or association of 23	churches.

1 138. In addition, Dignity is not "associated with" a church or convention or association
 2 of churches. Under ERISA section 3(33)(C)(iv), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(iv), an organization
 3 "is associated with a church or a convention or association of churches if it shares common 4 religious bonds and convictions with that church or convention or association of churches."
 5 Dignity does not share common religious bonds and convictions with a church or a convention or 6 association of churches.

7 139. Dignity does not impose any denominational requirement on its employees.
8 Indeed, Dignity tell prospective employees that religious affiliation is not a factor in the 9 recruiting and hiring of Dignity employees.

10 140. Dignity has a practice of affiliating with hospitals that claim no religious affiliation, including hospitals like Chandler Regional Medical Center in Chandler, Arizona.
In choosing to compete in the commercial arena of healthcare services and to embark upon a business plan that targets healthcare facilities with no claimed ties to any particular religion, or to religion generally, Dignity must be willing to accept neutral regulations, such as ERISA, imposed to protect its employees' legitimate interests.

16 141. Dignity provides non-denominational chapels and encourages its clients to seek 17 the faith of their own choosing.

18 142. Dignity does not impose any denomination requirement on its patients.
19 143. Accordingly, Dignity is not "associated with" the Catholic Church within the 20 meaning of ERISA section 3(33)(C)(iv), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(iv), and thus its employees are 21 not "employees" of a church or convention or association of churches within the meaning of 22 ERISA section 3(33)(C)(ii), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(ii). Because the Dignity Plan was not

2	ERISA section 3(33)(C)(i), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i).
3	144. For these same reasons, the Dignity Plan further fails to satisfy the requirements
4	of ERISA section 3(33)(C)(i) because, even if the Dignity Plan was "maintained" by the internal
5	committees and even if the committees qualified as principal-purpose "organizations," ERISA
6	section 3(33)(C)(i) requires that a principal-purpose organization be "controlled by or associated
7	with" a church or convention or association of churches within the meaning of ERISA.
8	29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(C)(i). Dignity's internal committees, like Dignity itself, are not controlled
9	by or associated with a church or convention or association of churches within the meaning of
10	ERISA.
11	c. Even if the Dignity Plan Could Otherwise Qualify as a Church Plan
12	Under ERISA Section 3(33)(A), It Is Excluded From Church Plan Status Under ERISA Section 3(33)(B)(ii)
13	145. Under ERISA section 3(33)(B)(ii), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(B)(ii), a plan is
14	specifically excluded from church plan status if less than substantially all of the plan participants
15	are members of the clergy or employed by an organization controlled by or associated with a
16	church or convention or association of churches. Even if the Dignity Plan could otherwise
17	qualify as a church plan under ERISA section 3(33)(A) or (C)(i), and even if Dignity itself was
18	controlled by or associated with a church, the Dignity Plan still would be foreclosed from church
19	plan status under section 3(33)(B)(ii), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33)(B)(ii), because, on information and
20	belief, the Dignity Plan covers more than an insubstantial number of employees that work for
21	subsidiaries or affiliates that are not controlled by or associated with any church or convention or
22	association of churches and/or are not tax-exempt.

Even if the Dignity Plan Could Otherwise Qualify as a Church Plan Under ERISA, the Church Plan Exemption, as Claimed by Dignity, Violates the Establishment Clause, and Is Therefore Void and Ineffective

146. The church plan exemption is an accommodation for churches that establish and 4 maintain pension plans, and it allows such plans to be exempt from ERISA. 5 147. The Establishment Clause guards against the establishment of religion by the 6 government. The government "establishes religion" where, as here, it exempts religious entities, 7 but not secular entities, from a neutral, generally applicable law and such exemption is not 8 required to alleviate a substantial burden on religious practice or to avoid government 9 entanglement in religion. ERISA is a neutral statute that governs pension benefits, and thus 10 application of the church plan exemption to Dignity relieves Dignity of no genuine religious 11 burden. Moreover, application of the church plan exemption to Dignity creates more 12 government entanglement with alleged religious beliefs than does compliance with ERISA. 13 Accordingly, application of the church plan exemption to Dignity is not a valid religious 14 accommodation. Extension of the church plan exemption to Dignity and other hospital systems 15 that are not themselves churches, but that claim ties to a church, but not to analogous secular 16 hospital systems, unconstitutionally privileges religious adherents over non-adherents. 17 148. Such a naked preference for religion is particularly improper where, as here, the 18 burdens of the exemption are imposed on Dignity's employees. Extension of the church plan 19 exemption to Dignity privileges Dignity for its claimed religious beliefs at the expense of its 20 employees, who are told that religion is not a prerequisite to their employment, yet who are then 21 denied the benefit of insured, funded pensions, as well as many other important ERISA 22 protections. Similarly, Dignity has a privileged economic advantage over its competitors in the commercial arena it has chosen, based solely on Dignity's claimed religious beliefs.

1	149. As set forth in more detail below in Count X, the extension of the church plan
2	exemption to Dignity, which is not a church, violates the Establishment Clause and thus is void
3	and ineffective.
4	VI. CLASS ALLEGATIONS
5	150. Plaintiffs brings this action as a class action pursuant to Rule 23 on behalf of
6	themselves and the following class of persons similarly situated:
7	All participants, former participants, or beneficiaries of the Dignity Health Pension Plan.
8	In addition, Plaintiff Wilson brings a claim on behalf of herself and the following subclass
9	(the "Subclass") of Class members similarly situated:
10	All participants, former participants, or beneficiaries of the Dignity Health
11	Pension Plan as of January 1, 2014, whose benefit accruals are calculated using the "PEP Plus" formula and who Dignity did not, within the time required by
12	ERISA, notify of an amendment to the Dignity Health Pension Plan changing the PEP Plus formula effective January 1, 2014.
13	Excluded from the Class and Subclass are any high-level executives at Dignity or any
14	employees who have responsibility or involvement in the administration of the Plan, or who are
15	subsequently determined to be fiduciaries of the Dignity Plan, including the Individual
16	Defendants.
17	A. Numerosity
18	151. The exact number of Class and Subclass members is unknown to Plaintiffs at this
19	time, but is believed to be approximately 80,000 individuals. Thus, the Class is so numerous that
20	joinder of all members is impracticable.
21	152. Defendant Dignity operates hospitals in Arizona, Nevada and California as well
22	as over 400 ancillary healthcare facilities spread across twenty-two states. Upon information and
23	as over too anomaly neutricate memory spread across twenty two states. Open information and belief, Dignity's employees and, therefore, the members of the Class are geographically dispersed across at least twenty-two states.

3 B. Commonality

153. The issues regarding liability in this case present common questions of law and fact, with answers that are common to all members of the Class, including: (1) whether the Plan is exempt from ERISA as a church plan; (2) whether the fiduciaries of the Plan have failed to administer and enforce the funding obligation of the Plan in accordance with ERISA; (3) whether the church plan exemption, as claimed by Dignity, violates the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment; and (4) whether Dignity has failed to comply with its obligations to fund the Plan under ERISA, the plan documents, and/or the common law.

11 154. The issues regarding liability as to the Subclass present additional questions 12 common to all members of the Subclass, namely: (1) whether Dignity violated ERISA by 13 improperly amending the Plan to reduce the benefits of Subclass members without notice;
14 (2) whether Dignity gave notice of the amendment to the PEP Plus benefit accrual formula 15 within the time required by ERISA; and (3) whether the PEP Plus formula, as in effect prior to 16 that amendment, "backloaded" the accrual of benefits in a manner prohibited by ERISA.

17 155. The issues regarding the relief are also common to the members of the Class as 18 the relief will consist of: (1) a declaration that the Plan is an ERISA covered plan; (2) an order 19 requiring that the Plan complies with ERISA's administration and funding requirements; (3) an 20 order requiring Dignity to pay civil penalties to the Class, in the same statutory daily amount for 21 each member of the Class; and/or (4) an order requiring Dignity to comply with its obligations to 22 fund the Plan.

1 156. The issues regarding relief as to the Subclass are also common to the members of 2 the Subclass, as the relief will consist of declaratory relief as to ERISA violations, and injunctive 3 relief requiring compliance.

4 C. Typicality

5 157. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of the claims of the other members of the Class
6 because Plaintiffs' claims arise from the same event, practice and/or course of conduct, namely
7 Defendants' failure to maintain the Plan in accordance with ERISA, the requirements of the Plan
8 documents, and/or the common law. Plaintiffs' claims are also typical because all Class 9 members are similarly affected by Defendants' wrongful conduct.

10 158. Plaintiff Wilson's claims are typical of the claims of the other members of the 11 Subclass because Plaintiff Wilson's claims arise from the same event, practice and/or course of 12 conduct, namely Defendants' failure to give notice of the amendment to the PEP Plus accrual 13 formula in accordance with ERISA. Plaintiff Wilson's claims are also typical because all 14 Subclass members are similarly affected by Defendants' wrongful conduct.

15 159. Plaintiffs' claims are also typical of the claims of the other members of the Class and Subclass because, to the extent Plaintiffs seeks equitable relief, it will affect all Class members equally. Specifically, the equitable relief sought consists primarily of: (i) a declaration that the Dignity Plan is not a church plan; and (ii) a declaration that the Dignity Plan is an ERISA covered plan that must comply with the administration and funding requirements of ERISA. In addition, to the extent Plaintiffs seek monetary relief, it is for civil fines to the Class, in the same statutory daily amount for each member of the Class.

160. Dignity does not have any defenses unique to Plaintiffs' claims that would make Plaintiffs' claims atypical of the remainder of the Class.

Case 3:13-cv-01450-JST Document 243 Filed 11/03/17 Page 43 of 80

1 D. Adequacy

- 2 161. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all 3 members of the Class.
- 4 162. Plaintiff Wilson will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of all 5 members of the Subclass.
- 6 163. Plaintiffs do not have any interests antagonistic to or in conflict with the interests 7 of the Class or the Subclass.
- 8 164. Defendant Dignity and the Individual Defendants have no unique defenses against 9 either of the Plaintiffs that would interfere with Plaintiffs' representation of the Class, or that 10 would interfere with Plaintiff Wilson's representation of the Subclass.
- 11 165. Plaintiffs have engaged counsel with extensive experience prosecuting class 12 actions in general and ERISA class actions in particular.

13 E. Rule 23(b)(1) Requirements.

- 14 166. The requirements of Rule 23(b)(1)(A) are satisfied because prosecution of 15 separate actions by the members of the Class or the Subclass would create a risk of establishing 16 incompatible standards of conduct for Defendants.
- 17 167. The requirements of Rule 23(b)(1)(B) are satisfied because adjudications of these 18 claims by individual members of the Class or the Subclass would, as a practical matter, be 19 dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the actions, or substantially impair 20 or impede the ability of other members of the Class to protect their interests.
- $_{21}$ || F.

Rule 23(b)(2) Requirements.

168. Class action status is also warranted under Rule 23(b)(2) because Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Class and the Subclass, with respect to the Class as a whole, and to the Subclass as a whole.

G. Rule 23(b)(3) Requirements.

If the Class is not certified under Rule 23(b)(1) or (b)(2) then certification under 169. 4 (b)(3) is appropriate because questions of law or fact common to members of the Class 5 predominate over any questions affecting only individual members. The common issues of law 6 7 or fact that predominate over any questions affecting only individual members include: (1) whether the Plan is exempt from ERISA as a church plan, and, if not, (2) whether the 8 fiduciaries of the Plan have failed to administer and fund the Plan in accordance with ERISA; 9 and (3) whether the church plan exemption, as claimed by Dignity, violates the Establishment 10 Clause of the First Amendment. A class action is superior to the other available methods for the 11 fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy because: 12

A. Individual Class members do not have an interest in controlling the prosecution of these claims in individual actions rather than a class action because the equitable relief sought by any Class member will either inure to the benefit of the Plan or affect each Class member equally;

B. Individual Class members also do not have an interest in controlling the prosecution of these claims because the monetary relief that they could seek in any individual action is identical to the relief that is being sought on their behalf herein;

20 C. There is no other litigation begun by any other Class members concerning 21 the issues raised in this litigation;

D. This litigation is properly concentrated in this forum, which is where Defendant Dignity is headquartered; and 24

E. There are no difficulties managing this case as a class action.

1	170. In addition to the issues identified in the preceding paragraph that Subclass
2	members necessarily share with other Class members, any questions of law or fact common to
3	members of the Subclass also predominate over any questions affecting only individual
4	members. Those issues include: (1) whether Dignity violated ERISA by improperly amending
5	the Plan to reduce the benefits of Subclass members without notice; and (2) whether the
6	PEP Plus formula, as in effect prior to that amendment, "backloaded" the accrual of benefits in a

8	VII. CAUSES OF ACTION
9	COUNT I (Claim for Equitable Relief Pursuant to ERISA Section 502(a)(2) and (a)(3) Against
10	Defendant Dignity)
11	171. Plaintiffs incorporate and re-allege by reference the allegations contained in all
12	foregoing paragraphs herein.
13	172. ERISA section 502(a)(3), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(3), authorizes a participant or 14	beneficiary to bring a civil action to obtain "appropriate equitable relief to enforce any
15	provisions of this [title]." Pursuant to this provision, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202, and Rule
16	57, Plaintiffs seek declaratory relief that the Dignity Plan is not a church plan within the meaning
17	of ERISA section 3(33), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(33), and thus is subject to the provisions of Title I and
18	Title IV of ERISA.
19	173. ERISA section 502(a)(3), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(3), also authorizes a participant or
20	beneficiary to bring a civil action"(A) to enjoin any act or practice which violates any provision
21	of this title or the terms of the plan, or (B) to obtain other appropriate equitable relief (i) to
22	redress such violations or (ii) to enforce any provisions of this subchapter or the terms of the
23	plan." Pursuant to these provisions, Plaintiffs seek orders directing the Dignity Plan's sponsor
24	and administrator to bring the Dignity Plan into compliance with ERISA.

C. Failure to Monitor Fiduciaries

231. This sub-Count alleges fiduciary breach against Defendant Dignity.

9 232. As alleged above, at all relevant times, Defendant Dignity was a named fiduciary 10 pursuant to ERISA section 402(a)(1), 29 U.S.C. § 1102(a)(1), or a de facto fiduciary within the 11 meaning of ERISA section 3(21)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A), or both. Thus, it was bound by 12 the duties of loyalty, exclusive purpose, and prudence.

13 233. The scope of the fiduciary responsibilities of Dignity included the responsibility 14 to appoint, and remove, and thus, monitor the performance of other fiduciaries.

15 234. Under ERISA, a monitoring fiduciary must ensure that the monitored fiduciaries 16 perform their fiduciary obligations, including those with respect to the investment and holding of 17 plan assets, and must take prompt and effective action to protect the plan and participants when 18 they are not.

19 235. The monitoring duty further requires that appointing fiduciaries have procedures 20 in place so that they may review and evaluate, on an ongoing basis, whether the "hands-on"
21 fiduciaries are doing an adequate job (for example, by requiring periodic reports on their work 22 and the plan's performance, and by ensuring that they have a prudent process for obtaining the 23 information and resources they need). In the absence of a sensible process for monitoring their appointees, the appointing fiduciaries would have no basis for prudently concluding that their appointees were faithfully and effectively performing their obligations to plan participants or for deciding whether to retain or remove them.

4 236. Furthermore, a monitoring fiduciary must provide the monitored fiduciaries with 5 the complete and accurate information in their possession that they know or reasonably should 6 know that the monitored fiduciaries must have in order to prudently manage the plan and the 7 plan assets, or that may have an extreme impact on the plan and the fiduciaries' investment 8 decisions regarding the plan.

9 237. Defendant Dignity breached its fiduciary monitoring duties by, among other 10 things: (a) failing to appoint persons who would run the Plan as an ERISA Plan; (b) failing to 11 ensure that the monitored fiduciaries appreciated the true extent of not running the Plan as an 12 ERISA Plan; (c) to the extent any appointee lacked such information, failing to provide complete 13 and accurate information to all of their appointees such that they could make sufficiently 14 informed fiduciary decisions with respect to the Plan; and (d) failing to remove appointees whose 15 performance was inadequate in that they continued to run the Plan as a non-ERISA Plan, and 16 who breached their fiduciary duties under ERISA.

17 238. The failure of Defendant Dignity to enforce the funding obligations owed to the 18 Plan has resulted in a loss to the Dignity Plan equal to the foregone funding and earnings
19 thereon, and profited Defendant Dignity by providing it the use of money owed to the Dignity 20 Plan for its general business purposes.

21

Co-Fiduciary Liability

22 239. As alleged above, all Defendants were named fiduciaries pursuant to ERISA
23 section 402(a)(1), 29 U.S.C. § 1102(a)(1), or de facto fiduciaries within the meaning of ERISA section 3(21)(A), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A), or both. Thus, they were bound by the duties of loyalty, exclusive purpose, and prudence.

240. ERISA section 405(a), 29 U.S.C. § 1105, imposes liability on a fiduciary, in addition to any liability which he may have under any other provision, for a breach of fiduciary responsibility of another fiduciary with respect to the same plan if he knows of a breach and fails to remedy it, knowingly participates in a breach, or enables a breach. Defendants breached all three provisions.

8 241. Knowledge of a Breach and Failure to Remedy. ERISA section 405(a)(3), 9 29 U.S.C. § 1105(3), imposes co-fiduciary liability on a fiduciary for a fiduciary breach by 10 another fiduciary if he has knowledge of a breach by such other fiduciary, unless he makes 11 reasonable efforts under the circumstances to remedy the breach. Each of the Defendants knew 12 of the breaches by the other fiduciaries and made no efforts, much less reasonable ones, to 13 remedy those breaches.

14 242. Because Defendants knew that the Plan was not being run as an ERISA Plan, 15 Defendants knew that the other Defendants were breaching their duties by not complying with 16 ERISA. Yet, they failed to undertake any effort to remedy these breaches.

17 243. Knowing Participation in a Breach. ERISA section 405(a)(1), 29 U.S.C.
18 § 1105(1), imposes liability on a fiduciary for a breach of fiduciary responsibility by another 19 fiduciary with respect to the same plan if he knowingly participates in, or knowingly undertakes 20 to conceal, an act or omission of such other fiduciary, knowing such act or omission is a breach.
21 Dignity knowingly participated in the fiduciary breaches of the other Defendants in that it 22 benefited from the Plan not being run as an ERISA Plan.

by the average plan participant; (2) apprise the applicable participant of the significance of the notice; (3) include a description of the benefit or allocation formula prior to the amendment, a description of the benefit or allocation formula under the plan as amended, and the effective

255. Defendant Dignity amended the Plan in April, 2014, in a manner that significantly reduced the rate of future benefit accruals for employees whose benefits had been accruing under the PEP Plus formula.

4 256. Defendant Dignity never provided the requisite 204(h) Notice of the drastic 5 change in accrual of their benefits to Plaintiff Wilson and the Subclass. That failure was 6 egregious. First, the failure to meet the notice requirements was entirely within the control of 7 Dignity. Second, it was either (1) an intentional failure or (2) a failure, whether or not 8 intentional, to provide most of the individuals with most of the information they are entitled to 9 receive. Id. at Q-14, A-14(a)(1)-(2). The egregious nature of Dignity's failure is evidenced by the 10 fact that Dignity negotiated the new formula in union negotiations, and allowed the union to 11 provide notice to its members, but utterly failed to let other Plan participants know at all. 12 Instead of having a 45-day period in advance of the effectiveness of the change in which to take action, the Subclass got no notice at all. No notice was prepared and timely delivered to the 13 14 members of the Subclass; and Plaintiffs only stumbled upon the truth accidentally, more than a 15 year later. 16 257. Defendants' failures to comply with the timing, content, and method of 17 distribution requirements of the notice and disclosure laws violated ERISA section 204(h), 18 29 U.S.C. § 1054(h), and all applicable regulations.

19 258. As a consequence of these violations of ERISA section 204(h), 29 U.S.C.
20 § 1054(h), and all applicable regulations, the Dignity Plan amendment that purported to change 21 the accrual of additional pension benefits never became effective. Defendants' acts and/or 22 omissions prejudiced or likely prejudiced Plaintiff Wilson and the Subclass because the failure to receive adequate notice precluded their full understanding of the impact of these Plan amendments and/or prevented them from further supplementing their retirement savings.

259. Defendants' acts and/or omissions render the Dignity Plan amendments unenforceable. Pursuant to ERISA section 204(h)(6), 29 U.S.C. § 1054(h)(6), as a result of Defendants' egregious failures to provide notice, the provisions of the Dignity Plan must be applied, to the extent they are consistent with ERISA, as if the plan amendment entitled all applicable individuals to the greater of: (1) the benefits to which the participants would have been entitled without regard to such amendment; or (2) the benefits under the plan with regard to such amendment.

10 260. Pursuant to ERISA section 502(a)(3), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(3), Plaintiffs seek equitable relief to enforce ERISA section 204(h), 29 U.S.C. § 1054(h). Specifically, Plaintiffs 11 12 seek an order declaring that Defendants' failure to provide the requisite 204(h) notice was 13 egregious. Plaintiffs further seek an order enforcing the provisions of ERISA section 204(h)(6), 14 29 U.S.C. § 1054(h)(6), including the requirement that the provisions of the Dignity Plan be 15 applied as if the April, 2014 amendment entitled all applicable individuals to the greater of: (1) 16 the benefits to which the participants would have been entitled to without regard to such 17 amendment; or (2) the benefits under the plan with regard to such amendment. ERISA

19 261. Additionally, irrespective of whether Defendant's failure to provide notice was 20 egregious, Plaintiffs are entitled to remedies under ERISA section 502, 29 U.S.C. § 1132, for

268. Application of the church plan exemption to hospital systems like Dignity—entities that have chosen to compete with commercial businesses by entering the economic arena and trafficking in the marketplace—would effect an exemption from a neutral, generally applicable statute that is available to hospital systems with some connection to religion but not to analogous secular hospital systems.

6 269. An exemption from a neutral, generally applicable statute that is available 7 exclusively to religious entities is an unconstitutional establishment of religion unless the 8 exemption is necessary to alleviate a substantial, state-imposed burden on religious exercise or to 9 avoid substantial government entanglement in religion. Application of the church plan 10 exemption to hospital systems like Dignity accomplishes neither purpose.

270. An exemption from ERISA for hospital systems like Dignity is not required to alleviate a substantial, state-imposed burden on religious exercise. ERISA is a neutral statute that governs pension benefits. It is materially indistinguishable from the array of neutral Congressional enactments that do not significantly burden religious exercise when applied to commercial activities. Dignity maintains multiple separate ERISA-governed plans, which further evidences that ERISA creates no undue burden on any genuine religious practice of Dignity.

18 271. An exemption from ERISA for hospital systems like Dignity is not required to 19 avoid government entanglement in religion. ERISA does not require government entanglement 20 in religion. Although Congress enacted the church plan exemption to avoid "examination of 21 books and records" that "might be regarded as an unjustified invasion of the confidential

relationship with regard to churches and their religious activities,"⁴ this purpose has no 1 2 application to hospital systems like Dignity. Dignity is not a church and is neither run by, nor 3 financially connected to, any church. Unlike a church, Dignity has no confidential books and 4 records to shield from government scrutiny because Dignity already purports to disclose all 5 material financial records and relationships when it seeks Medicare and Medicaid 6 reimbursements and issues tax-exempt bonds. Thus, application of the exemption to hospital 7 systems like Dignity is not necessary to further Congress' stated purpose for enacting the church 8 plan exemption.

9 272. Indeed, an exemption from ERISA for hospital systems like Dignity creates more 10 government entanglement in religion than would the application of ERISA. Dignity's claim to 11 the church plan exemption requires courts and government agencies to examine religious 12 "convictions" of a hospital system like Dignity to determine whether they are "shared" with a 13 church, in the absence of any actual church responsibility for the pensions. This creates 14 entanglement between government and putative religious beliefs. ERISA compliance, on the 15 other hand, requires zero entanglement with religion for Dignity because ERISA is a neutral 16 statute that regulates pension protections and Dignity has no relevant confidential books, records 17 or relationships.

18 273. Because it is not necessary to alleviate substantial government burden on religious 19 exercise or to avoid government entanglement in religion, application of the church plan
20 exemption to hospital systems like Dignity serves no purpose but to demonstrate government 21 endorsement of religion.

274. Even if the application of the church plan exemption to hospital systems like 1 2 Dignity were a permissible religious accommodation, it still would run afoul of the 3 Establishment Clause because the costs and burdens of the exemption are imposed on Dignity 4 workers. To be constitutional, a religious accommodation must not impose burdens on non-5 adherents without due consideration of their interests. Dignity tells prospective employees that 6 their choice of faith, or lack thereof, is not a factor in the recruiting and hiring of Dignity 7 employees. Thus, as a practical matter, and by Dignity's own design, the Dignity Plan's 8 participants include people of a vast number of divergent faiths. The church plan exemption, as 9 claimed by Dignity, places its thousands of longtime employees' justified reliance on their 10 pension benefits at great risk, including because the Plan is uninsured and underfunded. In 11 addition, Dignity fails to provide the multitude of other ERISA protections designed to safeguard 12 its employees' pensions. The church plan exemption, as claimed by Dignity, provides no 13 consideration of the harm that it causes to Dignity's employees.

14 275.The church plan exemption, as applied to hospital systems like Dignity, also fails 15 because it does not provide consideration for the harms imposed on competing hospital systems 16 that do not claim religious affiliations. Dignity's commercial rivals face material disadvantages 17 in their competition with Dignity because the rivals must use their current assets to fully fund, 18 insure (through premiums to the PBGC), and administer their pension plans, as well as providing 19 other ERISA protections. In claiming that the Dignity Plan is an exempt church plan, Dignity 20 enjoys a material competitive advantage because it is able to divert significant cash, which 21 otherwise would be required to fund, insure (through premiums to the PBGC), and administer the 22 Dignity Plan, to its competitive growth strategy. The church plan exemption, as claimed by 23 Dignity, provides no consideration of the disadvantage it creates for Dignity's competitors.

Dignity Plan restatements, summary plan descriptions, and benefit statements issued to Plaintiffs and the other Class members.

282. The promises made in the Dignity Plan documents were clearly communicated to Plaintiffs and the other Class members, including through summary plan descriptions, benefits statements, and other Dignity Plan documents, such that Plaintiffs and the other Class members could reasonably understand that Dignity (or its predecessor in interest) had made an offer, in exchange for their continued service, to make ongoing contributions to the Dignity Plan trust sufficient to pay for their accrued pension benefits.

9 283. Plaintiffs and the other Class members accepted Dignity's offer by commencing 10 or continuing to work after learning of Dignity's promises to pay and fund pension benefits.

284. Plaintiffs' and the other Class members' continued work for Dignity constituted consideration for the promises contained in the Dignity Plan documents.

13285. Accordingly, the Dignity Plan documents constitute enforceable contracts.

14 286. By continuing to work for Dignity, Plaintiffs and the other Class members 15 performed their obligations under the contracts and satisfied the conditions of Dignity's duty to 16 make sufficient contributions to fund accrued pension benefits.

17 287. Defendant Dignity breached its obligations under the contracts by failing to make 18 contributions to the Dignity Plan trust that were sufficient to pay for all accrued pension benefits.
19 288. Defendant Dignity further breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair 20 dealing. Defendant Dignity failed to exercise good faith in the performance of its obligation to 21 make contributions to the Dignity Plan trust in an amount which is sufficient, on an actuarial 22 basis, to fund all accrued benefits under the Dignity Plan.

289. Dignity willfully failed to perform, evaded the spirit of the bargain, and failed to act consistent with the reasonable expectations of Plaintiffs and the Class to the extent it (a) sought to satisfy its funding obligation by making only partial contributions to the Dignity Plan trust; or (b) interpreted its funding obligation as being satisfied by its partial contributions, which as of 2016 resulted in the Dignity Plan being funded at only 72% of its accrued benefit obligations.

7 290. A promise to pay pension benefits—as was made in the Dignity Plan documents 8 and repeated in benefit statements and other communications sent to Plaintiffs and the other 9 Class members—is meaningful only if there is money in the plan trust that is sufficient, on an 10 actuarial basis, to pay the accrued benefits. Plaintiffs believed, and a reasonable plan participant 11 would expect, that in light of the promise to pay defined pension benefits upon retirement and 12 the promise to make contributions sufficient to fund that promise, Dignity would have made 13 contributions sufficient, on an actuarial basis, to fund the full amount of the accrued benefit, not 72% of that amount. 14

15 291. Defendant Dignity had an improper motive to make insufficient contributions to 16 the Dignity Plan: Plaintiffs and the other Class members continued in their employment, relying 17 in whole or in part on Dignity's promises, while Dignity simultaneously retained hundreds of 18 millions of dollars for its own account that should have been contributed to the Dignity Plan. 19 292. Because Defendant Dignity breached its obligation to make contributions to the 20Dignity Plan, Plaintiffs and the other Class members have been deprived of their contractual 21 right to a sufficiently funded trust supporting their accrued pension benefits. Dignity's failure to 22 make sufficient contributions to the Dignity Plan trust has left the Dignity Plan severely 23 underfunded, creating a significant risk that the Dignity Plan will be unable to pay promised

2	amounts to th	e Dignity Plan, as previously alleged.

- 3 301. Dignity also avoided the cost of higher employee turnover as a result of Plaintiffs and the other Class members remaining employees of Dignity. Costs of employee turnover can 4 5 include: the time of management and human resources personnel devoted to exit interviews and 6 organizing work left behind by departing employees; severance benefits and variable 7 unemployment insurance costs; advertising for replacement employees; the time of management 8 devoted to reviewing applications and conducting interviews and reference checks; the time of 9 managers and co-workers devoted to training new replacement employees; and reduced 10 productivity of replacement employees due to inexperience.

amount which is sufficient, on actuarial basis, to fund all accrued benefits under the Dignity Plan.

3 319. As a direct and proximate result of the fiduciary breaches by the Retirement
4 Committee, the Dignity Plan trust and its beneficiaries, including Plaintiffs and the other Class 5 members, have been deprived of contributions to which they are entitled under the terms of the 6 Dignity Plan and the Dignity Plan trust has become severely underfunded, creating a significant 7 risk that the Dignity Plan will be unable to pay to Plaintiffs and the other Class members the 8 pension benefits to which they are entitled under the Dignity Plan.

9 320. Plaintiffs seek an order enforcing these fiduciary duties, and enjoining the 10 Retirement Committee's ongoing breaches thereof, including an order directing the Retirement 11 Committee to review actuarial reports and other relevant information regarding the funded status 12 of the Dignity Plan and use all reasonable diligence to require Dignity to make contributions to 13 the Dignity Plan that are sufficient, on an actuarial basis, to fund all accrued pension benefits. 14 321. The Retirement Committee is liable to restore the losses to the Dignity Plan 15 caused by their breaches of fiduciary duties alleged in this Count. Plaintiffs further request other 16 equitable relief as appropriate.

VIII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

18 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that judgment be entered against Defendants on all claims and19 request that the Court award the following relief:

A. Certifying the Class and the Subclass, under Rule 23, appointing Plaintiffs as Class Representatives, and appointing their attorneys as Class Counsel to represent the members of the Class and Subclass;

B. Declaring that the Dignity Plan is an employee benefit plan within the meaning of ERISA section 3(2), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(2), is a defined benefit pension plan within the meaning

M. Ordering declaratory and injunctive relief that the amendment changing or eliminating the PEP Plus accrual formula effective January 1, 2014, is void and unenforceable; enjoining Defendant Dignity from enforcing the amendment; and reforming the Dignity Plan to conform with the terms that existed prior to that ineffective amendment;

N. Declaring that the backloaded PEP Plus accrual formula violates ERISA, and ordering that a participants' entire accrued benefit shall be calculated under either the old PEP Plus formula or the new amended formula, whichever provides the greatest total benefit;

8 O. Surcharging Defendants for losses resulting from Dignity's breach of its duty to 9 provide the 204(h) Notice, and disgorging any amounts by which Dignity was unjustly enriched 10 as a result of its decision to drastically change the accrual of future benefits without providing an 11 adequate 204(h) Notice;

P. Declaring with respect to Count X, that the church plan exemption, as claimed by Dignity, is an unconstitutional accommodation under the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment, and is therefore void and ineffective;

Q. In the alternative to the relief requested pursuant to Counts I-X, if the Court determines that the Dignity Plan is a "church plan" exempt from ERISA, ordering specific performance of Defendant Dignity's contractual obligations under the Dignity Plan documents, including an order requiring Defendant Dignity to make contributions to the Dignity Plan trust that are sufficient, on an actuarial basis, to fund all accrued pension benefits under the Dignity Plan;
