COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, Justin Johnson, individually and on behalf of his child, Baby Ingrid, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby sues Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett, Betty Osceola, Talbert Cypress, Baptist Hospital Inc., Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown) and John and Jane Does, as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The amount in controversy in this action exceeds the sum of fifteen thousand ($15,000.00) dollars, exclusive of pre-judgment interest and court costs.
2. Venue is proper, pursuant to Florida State Statute 48.193, in Miami-Dade County, Florida because the causes of action arise from events that occurred in Miami-Dade County, Florida and because Defendants are domiciled in Miami-Dade County.

It is believed that they are residents of Miami-Dade County.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES

15. Justin Johnson ("Justin") and his daughter, Baby Ingrid are not members of The Tribe nor are they eligible to be members of The Tribe because they do not possess the necessary blood quantum required for membership. Justin has a blood quantum of 0% and Baby Ingrid has a blood quantum of 3/8th. A blood quantum of ½ is required for membership in The Tribe, pursuant to the tribe's adopted regulations.
16. According to Title VIII, Section 3 of the Tribe's Criminal and Civil Code, Tribal Courts have no authority over Baby Ingrid or Justin.
17. According to case law of The Miccosukee Tribal Court of The Tribe promulgated by Business Council Appellate Order, In Re: Neil Sanders vs. Mercedes Osceola Case No; CV-15-15-A, the Tribal Court has no jurisdiction over Baby Ingrid or Justin.
18. It is alleged that The Tribe of Indians of Florida engages in the practice of arranged child marriages, which is relevant to explain the actions of The Tribe and it's representatives as discussed herein.
19. It is alleged that according to the culture of The Tribe, a girl is eligible for marriage upon the occurrence of her first menstrual period.

20. It is alleged that often these marriages would be orchestrated during an annual festival called the Corn Dance.
21. It is alleged that one typical location for said Corn Dances is a lot across the street from Betty Osceola's house.
22. Rebecca Sanders, the mother of Baby Ingrid, was "gifted" at the age of thirteen to an eighteen year old male – Calvin Kelly. Betty Osceola arranged this marriage. Rebecca Sanders was underage at the time of the marriage and by the age of fourteen she was pregnant by Calvin Kelly with her first child.
23. On November 15th, 2017, The Tribe's Tribal Court – Juvenile Division – entered a default judgment of guilt against Justin, ostensibly on behalf of Ms. Rebecca Sanders ("Sanders") (the mother of Baby Ingrid), purporting to adjudicate him of an "incident of violence" against Sanders, even though she rendered no complaint, nor did she make any allegations. Sanders, maintains that she was induced compelled to file this petition with the Tribal court by her brother, Neil Sanders. Sanders did not wish to file this complaint. The Tribe, acting through Jane W.O Billie, entered an order of protection against Justin that it claims has existed since November 15th 2017. However, Justin has never been served notice of a hearing in regards to such an order, nor was he ever served with such an order and he is not subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court. As a result, The Tribe has enforced a default judgment against a person, who was never noticed of the hearing, he has been accused of defaulting.
24. Sanders has two children from a previous arranged marriage, a 13-year old girl, A.K, and an 11-year old autistic boy, C.K.

25. Baby Ingrid was born on Friday March 16th 2018 at approximately 8:30 AM at Baptist Hospital (“Baptist”) located at 8900 North Kendall Drive, Miami Florida, 33176.
26. Baby Ingrid possesses a blood quantum of less than 50% Miccosukee blood, which is relevant because like her father, Justin, she is not a member of The Tribe, nor is she eligible for membership and not subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court.¹
27. On March 16th, 2018, Betty Osceola (“Osceola”) who is Baby Ingrid’s maternal grandmother, demanded that Baptist Hospital remove Justin from the hospital. Osceola presented a Tribal Order and the hospital, rightfully, chose not to honor that unenforceable and improperly domesticated order.
28. On March 16th 2018, Osceola and DeeDee J. Kelly (“Kelly”) who is of no relation to Baby Ingrid filed a sworn joint petition for legal custody of Sanders’ minor children before the Tribal Court – Juvenile Division for the purpose of gaining joint custody of Baby Ingrid. The petition bears the wrong name for Baby Ingrid, calling her “Ronan.”
29. The March 16th petition is incorrectly completed yet it was signed and accepted by the Clerk of the Courts for The Tribe. The third paragraph of the March 16th petition considers the court’s claim of jurisdiction. In blank space in that paragraph, the petitioner is to write the names of “said children”, yet instead the petitioner wrote “Betty L. Osceola DeeDee Kelly” the names of the maternal grandparent and a stranger. A second error can be found in the fourth paragraph of the incorrectly completed March 16th petition, where the petitioners state that name of the legal guardian of “said child” (assumed to be Baby Ingrid) are Betty Osceola and Rebecca Sanders (the baby’s mother). However, Osceola is not the child’s guardian and Sanders did not participate in the action.

¹ The Tribe requires a blood quantum of 50% or more to be a member or be eligible for membership into The Tribe.

30. On March 16th, 2018, Osceola and Kelly, also filed a sworn “Affidavit for Legal Custody” in which they defamed Justin by falsely accusing him of “child abuse,” not based upon reasonable first-hand knowledge, but rather upon the secondhand hearsay statements of the autistic minor child. This affidavit was signed and notarized by a person with an illegible signature but whose Identification Number is 28-0792.
31. On March 16th, 2018, Osceola also filed an “Information Required – Legal Custody” questionnaire for the Tribe’s Juvenile Court. In said questionnaire, Osceola stated that Baby Ingrid was not a member of The Tribe, nor would she ever be a member of The Tribe, stating: “If not presently a member, will the child/children be enrolled for membership of a Native American Tribe” the answer to which Osceola selected “No.”² Osceola also defrauds The Tribe’s court in the questionnaire by proffering the false statement that “Name of Natural Father: Calvin Kelly.” Calvin Kelly is not the father of Baby Ingrid.
32. On March 16th, 2018 Osceola also filed a sworn statement with The Tribe’s Police Department. Again, Osceola, in said sworn statement, defames Justin, asserting him to be a “child abuser.”
33. On March 16th, 2018, The Tribe’s Police Department generated and published a police report in regards to Osceola’s defamatory statements about Justin to them. This report included new defamatory statements (beyond the hearsay defamatory statements of child abuse that Osceola has already logged against Justin). These new defamatory statements accuse that Justin “works for Russian people and has been involved as their ““hit man” from time to time.” Said statements have no foundation in truth.

² Tribal membership is required for tribal courts to possess jurisdiction.

34. On March 16th, 2018, Defendant, Jennifer Prieto (“Prieto”) wrote a memo in which she stated that Osceola and Kelly came to her office and defamed Justin by accusing him of child abuse admitting that their allegations are backed only by the hearsay statements of the autistic minor child. The content of this memo was gathered from an interview that took place before Osceola spoke to The Tribe’s Police Department, yet it makes no mention of Justin’s alleged work as a “hit man” for “Russian people.”
35. On March 17th, 2018, Defendant Billie purportedly acting as The Tribe’s Court – Juvenile Division entered an “emergency order” purportedly granting temporary custody of Baby Ingrid to Osceola and Kelly. This order was also a “Child Pickup” order. This order falsely asserts that The Tribe’s court has jurisdiction over Baby Ingrid, a fact known by Billie to be untrue. The dispositive question required by the Indian Child Welfare Act (“ICWA”) is whether the child in question is a member of The Tribe or is eligible for membership. Hence, the rules and regulations of the ICWA does not apply in this case, because Baby Ingrid is not a member of The Tribe, nor is she eligible. Furthermore, if The Tribe were to consider jurisdiction under the Violence Against Women Act Title IX (“VAWA”) then the Tribal Court would also still lack jurisdiction because no crime occurred on tribal lands, and the stringent due process requirements of VAWA have not been met. As a result, the order claiming jurisdiction over Baby Ingrid is defective and known by all Defendants, Billie, Prieto, Bennett and Gay to be factually defective and lacking jurisdiction, irrespective of what Act The Tribe attempts to use to mask its unlawful conduct. Notwithstanding same, Defendant Billie, acting for, The Tribe’s court issued another false statement and order that “(t)he Petition demonstrates probable cause

- that these children (including Baby Ingrid) come with the juvenile jurisdiction of this Court.” This order again referred to Baby Ingrid by the wrong name, calling her “Ronan.”
36. On or about March 17th, 2018, Defendant Prieto, a social worker of The Tribe, contacted Baptist Hospital and spoke to the attending nurse, Sherri Varela (“Varela”) and a Baptist case worker, Karla (last name unknown) about Baby Ingrid’s confidential personal medical information. At the time, Prieto knew that Baby Ingrid was not a member of The Tribe and therefore, she (Prieto) had no right to obtain, possess, nor distribute confidential personal medical information about Baby Ingrid. Prieto intentionally made false statements to Varela and Karla in order to obtain such confidential personal medical information, and Varela and Karla acted in a negligent manner by failing to ascertain the truthful information about Baby Ingrid before releasing her confidential personal medical information.
37. On or about March 17th, 2018, Defendants Billie, issued an Emergency Order, knowing that there was no basis for jurisdiction, purporting to grant temporary custody of Baby Ingrid to Osceola, the child’s maternal grandmother. Said order was also an “order for Child Pickup.” No due process was provided to Justin in the creation of this “Child Pickup order.” In fact, Justin is, according to The Tribe’s own documentation, prohibited from entering tribal territory. Hence, even if he were provided notice of hearing, he still would not be able to attend.
38. On March 17th, 2018, Prieto met C.S. for the first time, her previous discussion with him had been over the phone when he was in the custody of Osceola, with Osceola monitoring the call.

39. On March 17th, 2018, Justin was removed from the hospital by hospital staff. The nurse stated that they were removing Justin because “someone called the hospital and told them that it was in the hospital’s best interest to remove Justin”
40. On Sunday, March 18th, 2018 at approximately 10:30am a Miccosukee Tribal Police Officer – Michael Gay (“Gay”), aided and abetted by two Miami-Dade Police Officers (who’s names are currently unknown)(“The Two Unknown MDPD Officers”), entered the maternity ward of Baptist Hospital and abducted Baby Ingrid out of the arms of her mother – Sanders, as Sanders was then breast feeding the child and as Plaintiff, Justin was already removed from the hospital.
41. Baby Ingrid was born, via cesarean section, just 50 hours before this unlawful abduction.
42. As he was abducting Baby Ingrid, Gay stated to Sanders and Justin, “(t)his is not your baby anymore.”
43. At the time of the abduction, Gay was wearing and brandishing his side arm, in violation of Federal Law, as a tactic to and which did, in fact, intimidate Rebecca.
44. A Miccosukee Tribal Police Officer, such as Gay, only has jurisdiction on Miccosukee lands, and pursuant to applicable law, must remove his firearm once he leaves Miccosukee territory.
45. Baptist is over 30 miles away from Miccosukee territory.
46. Gay’s abduction of Baby Ingrid was aided and abetted by The Two Unknown MDPD Officers. Gay’s abduction could have been prevented by Varela and Karla, had they acted with reasonable due diligence to protect Sander, then a patient under care.
47. Gay presented to The Two Unknown MDPD Officers what he represented to be a “Federal Order” for Baby Ingrid to be seized, knowing that the order was not issued by a Federal Court, nor a court of competent jurisdiction. Gay's false representations was intended to deceive others, including Varela, Karla and the two unknown MDPD officers to assist him to abduct Baby Ingrid.

48. A simple review of the purported order, as well as the facts and the law relating to the matter would clearly evidence that Gay was not engaging in a legal act but instead was engaging in the armed kidnapping of a newborn child. However, at no time did Varela, Karla or the 2 unknown MDPD officers undertake reasonable steps to review the purported order or seek legal assistance about the legalities of said order.
49. The County of Miami-Dade ("The County") and the Miami-Dade Police Department did not perform this simple review of the order, which basic common practice dictates they do so.
50. Baptist and Baptist's employees made several unauthorized third party disclosures of Baby Ingrid's confidential personal medical information, in violation of her Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPPA") rights.
51. Baptist, either failed to review or it ignored the obvious fact that the order showed to them by Gay was really an order of a Tribal Court, without undertaking a reasonable basic and mandatory review of the facts or the law applicable to same and they "honored" the order (by allowing Gay to abduct Baby Ingrid), even though the order was defective on its face.
52. The Two Unknown MDPD Officers: 1) permitted Gay to carry his fire arm in to the maternity ward of a hospital on United States territory, 2) accompanied Gay into the hospital and aided and abetted the abduction allowing him to violate Federal Law and stained the color of law unto the Miccosukee Tribal Officer's actions, without 3) undertaking basic review of the facts, circumstances and law applicable to the order.

53. By such actions, Miami- Dade Police consented to and participated in Gay's and The Tribe's actions.
54. This abduction, aided and abetted by Miami-Dade Police and the employees of Baptist Hospital, then precipitated a four-day fiasco that separated two loving parents from their newly born child.
55. On March 19th, 2018, Osceola, purportedly acting on behalf of another minor child of Sanders (C.K), signed a sworn petition for an injunction for protection against repeat violence and submitted it to The Tribe's court's Civil Division. Osceola, in this sworn petition, again defamed Justin as a "child abuser" and someone who has "hurt other people in his past." This petition asks "Any other acts of assault, battery, sexual battery or stalking committed by the respondent against me or a member of my immediate family:" Osceola complains that "he (Justin) is making false claims and allegations against me Betty Osceola personally."
56. On March 19th, 2018, Sanders filed a General Petition with The Tribe's court pleading for her newborn, Baby Ingrid, to be given back to her. She states that Gay took "my child from me despite showing no paper work." She also notes a "November 2017 ruling" by the Tribe's court that if applied, would hold that The Tribe had no jurisdiction over her or her non-tribal daughter – Baby Ingrid. However, Sanders was actually referencing a November 2015 ruling in In Re Neal Sanders v. Mercedes Osceola (Case No: CV-15-5-A). She was also referring the November 2017 change to The Tribe's by-laws that clearly states that the Tribal Court has no jurisdiction over this issue. The Tribal Court also has no jurisdiction pursuant to Title VIII, Section 3 of The Tribe's Criminal and Civil Code.

57. On March 19th, 2018, Kelly sent an email to the Tribe's Tribal Court, stating "I have nothing to do with the newborn baby (in reference to Baby Ingrid) so I am requesting to eliminate myself from the petition." By such act, Kelly admitted that she perjured herself in the prior sworn petition on March 16th, 2018, where Kelly purportedly stated upon the urging of Osceola that she did have an interest in Baby Ingrid. Kelly, likewise, perjured herself in the March 16th 2018 sworn Affidavit for Legal Custody when she likewise stated that she had an interest in Baby Ingrid.
58. On March 20th, 2018, a memorandum written by Prieto, dated March 19th, 2018, was submitted to The Tribe's Tribal Court. The memo again refers to Baby Ingrid by the wrong name, again calling her "Ronan." The memorandum again details Osceola's hearsay defamation of Justin. The memorandum details Baptist's violations of Baby Ingrid's HIPAA rights, including doctors and other medical personal making illegal disclosures of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information. The memorandum also details how The Tribe's attorney, Defendant Bennett, was updated and informed about the situation and her role and involvement in the illegal abduction as discussed above. The memorandum also details the abduction of Baby Ingrid and how said abduction was aided and abetted by The Two Unknown MDPD Officers.
59. In the days following the abduction of Baby Ingrid, Plaintiff Johnson did not know the location or health of his child who was falsely imprisoned by The Tribe, acting through the actions of Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennett, Osceola.
60. On Thursday, March 22nd, 2018, Baby Ingrid was left in the care of a twelve-year old child whilst the Tribal Court contemplated whether or not to release her from her false imprisonment.

61. On Thursday, March 22nd, 2018, Baby Ingrid was returned to her loving and severely distressed parents during the late evening and pursuant to the demands of a United States Senator.
62. The abduction and false imprisonment of Baby Ingrid occurred during the critical imprinting stage of that child's life.
63. The abduction also caused extreme emotional distress upon the Plaintiff Justin.
64. Starting at some time before March 16th and continuing for some time after that date The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Minnie, Prieto and Bennet engaged in a conspiracy to falsely imprison Baby Ingrid in violation of her civil rights and in violation of The Tribes own by-laws, Criminal and Civil Code and case law.
65. On March 23rd, 2018, Talbert Cypress (Cypress) posted a public Facebook post in which he defames Justin by knowingly making false claims that Justin committed "physical and emotional abuse" against minor children. The Facebook post is attached as Exhibit A.
66. On April 6th, 2018, Sanders had a supervised visitation with her minor daughter A.S. In order to protect herself, Sanders recorded the visitation. In the recording, A.S. describes how Osceola had been coaching her and also Sanders' son, C.S. to make false statements to the Tribal Court in order to aid and assist the abduction of Baby Ingrid. A.S. describes how Osceola used material incentives to suborn C.S. to provide untrue testimony about Plaintiff Justin. A.S. also describes how she has been required to work as a caretaker to Baby Ingrid, even though A.S. is only twelve years of age. A.S. also describes marital strife between Osceola and her husband that has been caused by Osceola's coaching of the minor children -- A.S. and C.S.
67. Preto supervised the April 6th, 2018, visit and can be heard on the tape.

68. Baby Ingrid, because of this traumatic experience, now refuses to breastfeed. This deprives her of important nutrients and the other positive benefits of breastfeeding.

Count I - False Imprisonment

(vs. Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola)

69. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

70. This is a count for False Imprisonment against each of the Defendants who acted in concert.

71. False Imprisonment is defined by Florida Statute § 787.02 as “a person, acting without legal authority to do so, forcibly, secretly or by threat ether confined, abducted, imprisoned or restrained the victim against the victim’s will.” Or in this case the victims’ natural guardian’s will.

72. The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola, acting in willful and intentional concert, abducted Baby Ingrid from Baptist Hospital on March 18th without the permission of ether of her legal guardians.

73. When The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola abducted Baby Ingrid from Baptist hospital against the will of her natural guardian, Justin, they committed false imprisonment.

74. At all times relevant, each of the Defendants named in this count, acted with the intent to harm the Plaintiffs, knowing that their actions would and did cause them severe emotional harm and other damages.

75. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count II – Conspiracy

(vs. Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola)

76. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

77. This is a count for civil conspiracy versus all of the Defendants named in this count.

78. A person is guilty of conspiracy, as defined by Florida Statute § 777.04 if they are a “person who agrees, conspires, combines, or confederates with another person or persons to commit any offence commits the offense of criminal conspiracy.”

79. The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola worked together to defraud The United States, Miami-Dade County, Miami-Dade Police, and Baptist hospital for the purpose of abducting Baby Ingrid, via some type of tribal extraordinary rendition.

80. By working together to commit a crime, The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola acted in a conspiracy which did, in fact, cause damage to the Plaintiffs.

81. The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola acted as part of a conspiracy to prevent Plaintiff Justin from being the father to and raising Baby Ingrid.

82. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment, jointly and severally, against each of the Defendants named in this count, and relief in the form of: economic damages, and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count III – Tort of Outrage

(vs. Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola)

83. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:
84. This is a count for a tort of outrage resulting from the Defendants' outrageous conduct; intentionally to and causing harm to Plaintiffs versus all of the Defendants named in this count.
85. The tort of outrage has four elements; (1) The wrongdoer's conduct was intentional or reckless, that is, he intended his behavior when he knew or should have known that emotional distress would likely result; (2) The conduct was outrageous, that is, as to go beyond all bounds of decency, and to be regarded as odious and utterly intolerable in a civilized community; (3) The conduct caused emotional distress; and (4) The emotional distress was severe.
86. The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola's (1) conduct in granting orders and taking Baby Ingrid and participating in the process was intentional and they should of known that abducting a newborn from her parents would cause emotional distress; (2) their conduct of abducting a newborn child from her parents was so outrageous, as to go beyond all bounds of decency, and to be regarded as odious and utterly intolerable in a civilized community; (3) the conduct caused emotional distress to Justin; (4) the emotional distress that Justin suffered was severe.
87. Hence, The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola committed the tort of outrage. As a direct and proximate result of the actions of the Defendants', Justin has been damaged.

88. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment, jointly and severally, against Defendants, The Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida, Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola, and relief in the form of: economic damages, and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count IV – Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

(vs. Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola)

89. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:
90. This is a count for Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress versus Defendants: The Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida, Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola.
91. Under Florida law, to state a cause of action for intentional infliction of emotional distress, a complaint must allege four elements: (1) deliberate or reckless infliction of mental suffering; (2) outrageous conduct; (3) the conduct caused the emotional distress; and (4) the distress was severe.
92. The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola's (1) conduct acting alone and in concert in contriving this situation, granting orders and taking Baby Ingrid and participating in the process was an intentional or reckless infliction of mental suffering upon Justin; (2) the abduction of a new born child from her rightful guardian is outrageous conduct; (3) this child abduction caused Justin emotional distress; (4) the distress Justin suffered was severe.

93. Hence, The Tribe, Gay, Billie, Prieto, Bennet and Osceola perpetrated the tort of Intentional Inflection of Emotional Distress upon Justin.

94. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment, jointly and severally, against Defendants The Miccosukee Tribe of Indians of Florida, Michael Gay, Jane W.O. Billie, Jennifer Prieto, Jennene Bennett and Betty Osceola, and relief in the form of: economic damages, and other compensatory damages allowable under law; and costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count V – Defamation Per Se (in re The Facebook Post)

(vs. Talbert Cypress)

95. Plaintiff, Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

96. This is a count for Defamation Per Se versus Talbert Cypress, who is not a media party as contemplated by F.S. 770.01.

97. Under Florida Law, to state an cause of action for Defamation Per Se, the plaintiff must show that: 1) a false statement concerning the plaintiff; 2) an unprivileged publication of the statement to a third party; 3) negligence or intentional conduct on the part of the author of the statement; and 4) the content of the false statement is so inherently damaging that damages are presumed to exist from the mere fact the statement was made.

98. Cypress 1) made a false statement charging Justin of child abuse; 2) Defendant Cypress published the defamatory statement to third parties, via a Facebook Post on March 23rd, 2018; 3) Cypress acted intentionally; and 4) the false statements of child abuse are a charge that Justin has committed an infamous crime. Each of said statements were untrue.

99. Hence, Defendant Cypress perpetuated the tort of Defamation Per Se upon Justin.

100. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment against Defendant, Talbert Cypress and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count VI – Negligence (in re The Discharge of Baby Ingrid)

(vs. Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (Last Name Unknown) John and Jane Does)

101. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

102. This is a count for common law negligence versus Baptist Hospital, Varela and Karla, in regards to the discharge of Baby Ingrid.

103. Negligence has four elements in Florida: (1) the defendant owed plaintiff a duty of care; (2) the defendant breached the duty of care owed to plaintiff; (3) the defendants' breach caused the accident; (4) the plaintiff suffered harm or injury as a result.

104. Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does (1) owed Justin a duty of care, not to surrender Baby Ingrid to a stranger who had no legal right to abduct her and to protect him from harm while he was within the hospital; (2) defendants breached that duty of care when they permitted Gay to abduct Baby Ingrid without legal justification to do so; (3) the defendants' breach of their duty, to inspect the documents proffered by Gay and reject them caused the event of Baby Ingrid being abducted by Gay; (4) Justin suffered harm or injury as a direct and proximate result of the actions of the Defendants named in this count.

105. Hence, Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does were negligent in honoring the unlawful order presented to them by Gay and permitting Gay to abduct Baby Ingrid.

106. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment, jointly and severally, against Defendants and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; and costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count VIII – Negligence (in re The Disclosure of Baby Ingrid’s Personal Medical Information)

(vs. Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (Last Name Unknown), John and Jane Does)

107. Plaintiff, Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

108. This is a count for negligence in regards to the disclosure of Baby Ingrid’s personal medical information versus Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (Last name unknown), and John and Jane Does.

109. Negligence has four elements in Florida: (1) the defendant owed plaintiff a duty of care; (2) the defendant breached the duty of care owed to plaintiff; (3) the defendants’ breach caused the accident; (4) the plaintiff suffered harm or injury as a result.

110. Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does (1) owed Justin a duty of care, not to disclose Baby Ingrid’s personal medical information to a stranger, as embodied by the HIPPA Privacy Rule, who had no legal right to possess that information; (2) the Defendants named in this count breached that duty of care when they made unauthorized disclosures of Baby Ingrid’s personal medical information; (3) the defendants breach of their duty, to abide by the HIPPA Privacy Rule, lead to an unauthorized disclosure of Baby Ingrid’s personal medical information ; (4) Baby Ingrid and Justin suffered harm or injury as a direct and proximate result of the Defendants’ negligent acts.

111. Hence, Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does were negligent in their handing of and unlawful distribution of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information.

112. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; and costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count VIII – Negligence (in re The Failure to Mitigate the Release of Baby Ingrid's Personal Medical Information)

(vs. Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (Last Name Unknown), John and Jane

Does)

113. Plaintiff, Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

114. This is a count for negligence in regards to the failure to mitigate the disclosure of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information versus Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (Last name unknown), and John and Jane Does.

115. Negligence has four elements in Florida: (1) the defendant owed plaintiff a duty of care; (2) the defendant breached the duty of care owed to plaintiff; (3) the defendants' breach caused the accident; (4) the plaintiff suffered harm or injury as a result.

116. Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does (1) owed plaintiff a duty of care to mitigate any unauthorized disclosure of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information to a stranger, who had no legal right to possess that information, as embodied by the HIPPA Mitigation Rule; (2) defendants breached that duty of care when they failed to mitigate the unauthorized disclosures of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information; (3) the defendants breach of their duty, to abide by the HIPPA Mitigation Rule, lead to an ongoing and unmitigated unauthorized disclosure of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information ; (4) Baby Ingrid suffered harm or injury as a result.

117. Hence, Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does were negligent in their failure to properly mitigate the unlawful distribution of Baby Ingrid's personal medical information.

118. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Count IX – Tort of Outrage

(Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown) John and Jane Does)

119. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

120. This is a count for a tort of outrage resulting from the Defendants' outrageous conduct; intentionally to and causing harm to Plaintiffs versus Defendants: Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown), and John and Jane Does.

121. The tort of outrage has four elements; (1) The wrongdoer's conduct was intentional or reckless, that is, he intended his behavior when he knew or should have known that emotional distress would likely result; (2) The conduct was outrageous, that is, as to go beyond all bounds of decency, and to be regarded as odious and utterly intolerable in a civilized community; (3) The conduct caused emotional distress; and (4) The emotional distress was severe.

122. Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does, when the honored The Tribe's order and failed to reject it engaged in (1) reckless conduct that they should have known that emotional distress would likely result; (2) releasing a new born baby to a stranger who has no legal right to her is outrageous conduct that goes beyond all bounds of decency, and to be regarded as odious and utterly intolerable in a civilized community; (3) this conduct caused emotional distress to Justin; (4) Justin's emotional distress was severe.

123. Hence, Baptist, Varela, Karla, John and Jane Does perpetuated the tort of outrage against Justin.

124. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment, jointly and severally, against Defendants Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown), and John and Jane Does and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT X – Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

(Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown) John and Jane Does)

125. Plaintiff Justin restates and realleges the above allegations in paragraphs 1-68 as if restated herein and the facts they allege and he further alleges:

126. This is a count for the Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress versus Defendants: Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown), and John and Jane Does.

127. Under Florida law, to state a cause of action for negligent infliction of emotional distress, a complaint must allege four elements: (1) the plaintiff must suffer a physical injury; (2) the plaintiff's physical injury must be caused by the psychological trauma; (3) the plaintiff must be involved in some way in the event causing the negligent injury to another; and (4) the plaintiff must have a close personal relationship to the directly injured person.

128. Baptist, Varela, Karla (last name unknown) John and Jane Does' (1) conduct caused Plaintiff Justin to suffer a physical injury; (2) Plaintiff Justin's physical injury was caused by psychological trauma; (3) Plaintiff Justin was involved in the abduction of Baby Ingrid because he was in the next room as Baby Ingrid was abducted; and (4) Plaintiff Justin has a close personal relationship to Baby Ingrid – he is her father.

129. Hence, Baptist, Varela, Karla (last name unknown) John and Jane Does perpetuated the tort of negligent infliction of emotional distress against Justin.

130. Wherefore, Plaintiff Justin, demands judgment, jointly and severally, against Defendants, Baptist Hospital, Sherri Varela, Karla (last name unknown), and John and Jane Does, and relief in the form of: economic damages, punitive damages, and other compensatory damages allowable under law; prejudgment interest and post judgment interest; attorneys' fees and costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Prayer for Relief

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Justin demands judgment against Defendants named herein and relief in the form of: economic damages and other compensatory damages allowable under law; costs, and any other relief the Court deems just and proper.

Jury Demand

Plaintiff, Justin hereby demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.
