ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the Motion of the United States to seal its motions for use immunity for the trial testimony of five potential witnesses pursuant to Local Criminal Rule 49(E). For good cause shown, the Court finds:

- 1. The United States seeks an order pursuant to Local Criminal Rule 49(E) sealing its motions for use immunity for the trial testimony of five potential witnesses.
- 2. Sealing of these documents is necessary because the motions would reveal the identities of uncharged third parties involved in the investigation and the trial, thereby creating the risk of undue harassment. Sealing is also appropriate because the information contained in the motions could lead to reputational harm. See, e.g., United States v. Smith, 776 F.2d 1104, 1115 (3d Cir.1985) (finding that the trial court properly sealed a Bill of Particulars to protect the identities of third party individuals and "the reputational and privacy interests" of those third parties); United States v. Gerena, 869 F.2d 82, 85 (2d Cir. 1989) (finding the need to consider the privacy interests of innocent third parties that may be harmed by disclosure); United States v. Bracy, 67 F.3d 1421, 1426–27 (9th Cir. 1995) (finding that the need to protect the safety of potential witnesses justified sealing of indictment).

3. The United States and the Court have considered procedures other than sealing, but none would suffice to protect the information subject to sealing.

4. This Court has the inherent authority to order that documents be filed under seal.

"The trial court has supervisory power over its own records and may, in its discretion, seal documents if the public's right of access is outweighed by competing interests." In re Knight Pub.

Co., 743 F.2d 231, 235 (4th Cir. 1984).

5. The United States seeks to have its motions for use immunity for the trial testimony of five potential witnesses sealed unless and until the named individuals testify in the upcoming trial, or until further order of the Court.

It is therefore ORDERED that the United States' Motion to Seal is GRANTED; it is further ORDERED that the motions for use immunity for the trial testimony of five potential witnesses will remain under seal unless and until the named individuals testify in the upcoming trial, or until further Order of this Court.
