18 Attorneys for Plaintiff,
19 YOLANDA CHAMPION

20 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
21 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

22 YOLANDA CHAMPION, on behalf of herself,
23 all others similarly situated,

24 Plaintiff,

25 vs.

26 AMAZON.COM LLC., a Delaware limited
27 liability company; NEA DELIVERY, LLC d/b/a
28 FAST DELIVERY SERVICES, a California
limited liability company; and DOES 1 through 50, inclusive,

Defendants.

Case No.

CLASS ACTION

COMPLAINT FOR:

1. Failure to Provide Meal Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7, 512, and 1198);
2. Failure to Provide Rest Periods (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7, and 1198);
3. Failure to Pay Hourly Wages (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1194.2, 1197, 1997.1, and 1198);
4. Failure to Provide Accurate Written Wage Statements (Lab. Code § 226(a));
5. Failure to Timely Pay All Final Wages (Lab. Code §§ 201-203);
6. Unfair Competition (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.);
7. Failure to Pay Employees for All Hours Worked (29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.).

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 Plaintiff YOLANDA CHAMPION (hereafter "Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself, all others
2 similarly situated, complains and alleges as follows:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 1. Plaintiff brings this class action against defendant AMAZON.COM LLC, a
5 Delaware limited liability company ("AMAZON"); NEA DELIVERY, LLC. d/b/a FAST
6 DELIVERY SYSTEMS, a California limited liability company ("NEA DELIVERY"); and 7 DOES 1 through 50, inclusive (hereafter "Defendants") for alleged violations of the Labor and 8 Business and Professions Codes. As set forth below, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants have 9 misclassified him and similarly situated individuals as independent contractors, failed to 10 provide them with meal periods, failed to provide them with rest periods, failed to pay them for 11 all hours worked, failed to pay premium wages for unprovided meal and/or rest periods, failed
12 to pay overtime wages, failed to provide them with accurate written wage statements, and failed
13 to timely pay them all of their final wages following separation of employment. Based on these 14 alleged Labor Code violations, Plaintiff now brings this class action to recover unpaid wages, 15 restitution, and related relief on behalf of herself, all others similarly situated.

16 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims of Plaintiff and the 18 putative class pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 1331 because these claims seek redress for violation of 19 Plaintiff's and the putative class' federal statutory rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act (28 20 U.S.C. §§ 201, et seq.).

21 3. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's and the putative class'
22 state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 1367(a) because these claims are so closely related 23 to Plaintiff's and the putative class' federal law wage and hour claims that they form parts of the 24 same case or controversy under Article III of the United States Constitution.

25 4. Venue is proper in the Northern District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 26 1391(b) and (c) as a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in 27 this judicial district.

PARTIES

2 5. Plaintiff YOLANDA CHAMPION is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein,
3 an individual residing in the State of California.

4 6. Defendant AMAZON.COM LLC is, and at all relevant times mentioned herein, a
5 Delaware limited liability company doing business in the State of California.

6 7. Defendant NEA DELIVERY, LLC d/b/a FAST DELIVERY SYSTEMS is, and 7 at all relevant times mentioned herein, a California corporation doing business in the State of 8 California.

9 8. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names, capacities, relationships, and extent of 10 participation in the conduct alleged herein, of the defendants sued as DOES 1 through 50, 11 inclusive, but is informed and believes that said defendants are legally responsible for the 12 conduct alleged herein and therefore sues these defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff
13 will amend this complaint to allege both the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants 14 when ascertained.

15 9. Plaintiff is informed and believes that each defendant acted in all respects
16 pertinent to this action as the agent of the other defendants, carried out a joint scheme, business
17 plan or policy in all respects pertinent hereto, and that the acts of each defendant are legally 18 attributable to each of the other defendants.

19 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

20 10. This action has been brought and may be maintained as a class action pursuant to 21 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure Rule 23 because there is a well-defined community of interest 22 among the persons who comprise the readily ascertainable classes defined below and because 23 Plaintiff is unaware of any difficulties likely to be encountered in managing this case as a class 24 action.

25 11.

26 12. Relevant Time Period: The “Relevant Time Period” is defined as the time
27 period beginning four years prior to the filing of this Complaint, until judgment is entered.

28 13. The class and subclass members are defined as follows:

1 Amazon Delivery Driver Class: All persons hired directly by Amazon and/or 2 any staffing agencies and/or any other third parties or were designated as 3 independent contractors, who worked as “delivery drivers” and/or with similar job
4 titles or duties in California during the Relevant Time Period.

5 NEA Delivery Sub-Class: All Amazon Delivery Driver Class members
6 who worked through NEA Delivery in California during the Relevant
7 Time Period.

8 Amazon Meal Period Sub-Class: All Amazon Delivery Driver Class
9 and NEA Delivery Sub-Class members who worked a shift in excess of 10 five hours during the Relevant Time Period.

11 Amazon Rest Period Sub-Class: All Amazon Delivery Driver Class
12 and NEA Delivery Sub-Class members who worked a shift of at least 13 three and one-half (3.5) hours during the Relevant Time Period.

14 Amazon Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class: All Amazon Delivery
15 Driver Class and NEA Delivery Sub-Class members employed by 16 Defendants in California during the period beginning one year before the 17 filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.

18 Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class: All Amazon Delivery
19 Driver Class and NEA Delivery Sub-Class members who separated from 20 their employment with Defendants during the period beginning three years 21 before the filing of this action and ending when final judgment is entered.

22 FLSA Class: All Amazon Delivery Driver Class members who worked in the 23 United States from September 27, 2013 through the present.

24 UCL Class: All Amazon Delivery Driver Class and NEA Delivery Sub-Class
25 members employed by Defendants in California during the Relevant Time
26 Period.

27 14. Reservation of Rights: Plaintiff reserves the right to amend or modify the class 28 definitions with greater specificity, by further division into subclasses, and/or by limitation to particular issues.

15 15. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that the individual joinder of 16 each individual class member is impractical. While Plaintiff does not currently know the exact 17 number of class members, Plaintiff is informed and believes that the actual number exceeds the 18 minimum required for numerosity under federal law.

19 16. Commonality and Predominance: Common questions of law and fact exist as 20 to all class members and predominate over any questions which affect only individual class 21 members. These questions include, but are not limited to:

22 A. Whether Defendants misclassified their delivery drivers;

- B. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their meal breaks;
- C. Whether Defendants maintained a policy or practice of failing to provide employees with their rest breaks;
- D. Whether Defendants failed to pay additional wages to class members when they have not been provided with required meal and/or rest periods;
- E. Whether Defendants failed to pay minimum and/or overtime wages to class members as a result of policies that fail to provide meal breaks in accordance with California law;
- F. Whether Defendants failed to provide class members with accurate written wage statements as a result of providing them with written wage statements with inaccurate entries for, among other things, amounts of gross and net wages, and time worked;
- G. Whether Defendants applied policies or practices that result in late and/or incomplete final wage payments;
- H. Whether Defendants are liable to class members for waiting time penalties under Labor Code § 203;
- I. Whether class members are entitled to restitution of money or property that Defendants may have acquired from them through unfair competition;
- J. Whether Defendants failed to pay class members for all time worked.

17. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the other class members' claims.

Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that Defendants have a policy or practice of failing to comply with federal laws, the Labor Code and the Business and Professions Code as alleged herein.

18. Adequacy of Class Representative: Plaintiff is an adequate class representative in that he has no interests that are adverse to, or otherwise conflict with, the interests of absent class members and is dedicated to vigorously prosecuting this action on their behalf. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the other class members.

1           19.     Adequacy of Class Counsel: Plaintiff's counsel are adequate class counsel in 2 that they have no known conflicts of interest with Plaintiff or absent class members, are 3 experienced in wage and hour class action litigation, and are dedicated to vigorously
4 prosecuting this action on behalf of Plaintiff and absent class members.

5           20.     Superiority: A class action is vastly superior to other available means for fair
6 and efficient adjudication of the class members' claims and would be beneficial to the parties
7 and the Court. Class action treatment will allow a number of similarly situated persons to 8 simultaneously and efficiently prosecute their common claims in a single forum without the 9 unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would entail. In 10 addition, the monetary amounts due to many individual class members are likely to be relatively 11 small and would thus make it difficult, if not impossible, for individual class members to both 12 seek and obtain relief. Moreover, a class action will serve an important public interest by 13 permitting class members to effectively pursue the recovery of moneys owed to them. Further, a 14 class action will prevent the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments inherent in 15 individual litigation.

16           GENERAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

17           21.     Plaintiff was hired by and worked for Defendants as a delivery driver sometime in 18 March 2017. Plaintiff was terminated on or about August 26, 2017 as Defendants stopped 19 scheduling her for work.

20           22.     As a delivery driver, Plaintiff's duties included but were not limited to driving,
21 picking up packages, dropping off packages, and other related duties.

22           23.     During her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff was required to report to 23 Defendants' facility at set times to perform her duties and use Defendants' tools, equipment and 24 instrumentalities to perform her duties.

25           24.     Plaintiff made no investment in the equipment or materials used to perform her
26 work for Defendants. Defendants provided Plaintiff with a delivery truck with the Amazon logo 27 and a handheld device used to scan packages, make radio calls, and provide route guidance.

28           25.     Moreover, Plaintiff was required to wear a uniform which consisted of a polo shirt

1 and a baseball cap, both with the Amazon logo.

2 26. During her employment with Defendants, Defendants maintained control over 3 which packages and the amount of packages Plaintiff and the putative class were required to 4 deliver on their shifts. Plaintiff and the putative class had no control over which packages and 5 the amount of packages they could accept or reject for delivery.

6 27. Defendants paid Plaintiff and the putative class a flat day rate that did not take 7 into account the actual number of hours worked.

8 28. During her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff and the putative class were 9 required to report to Amazon's facility at the end of beginning of each shift to pick up their daily
10 manifest and their delivery trucks. Plaintiff and the putative class were also required to report 11 to Amazon's facility at the end of each shift to drop off any undelivered packages and their 12 delivery trucks.

13 29. Despite Defendants' characterization to the contrary, at all relevant times, 14 Plaintiff and the putative class have been employees of Defendants and as such have been 15 entitled to the protections of the California Labor Code and applicable Wage Order.

16 30. Defendants willfully misclassified Plaintiff and the putative class as independent 17 contractors. At all relevant times, they have engaged in a pattern and/or practice of doing so.

18 31. Plaintiff, for example, worked many weeks, such as during her first month of 19 employment with Defendants, when she worked in excess of eight hours a day and 40 hours
20 during the week, but was not paid overtime. When Plaintiff began working for Defendants
21 sometime in March 2017, she worked from 7:15 a.m. through 9:00 p.m. from Monday through 22 Friday and was not paid any overtime. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that the 23 putative class members were treated the same way.

24 32. Plaintiff alleges that as a result of Defendants' practice and policy of 25 misclassifying employees as independent contractors, Plaintiff and putative class were:

- 26 A. Not provided with meal periods in violation of the California Labor Code;
27 B. Not provided with rest periods in violation of the Wage Order and 28 California Labor Code;

- 1 C. Not provided with hourly wages for all hours worked in violation of the
- 2 California Labor Code;
- 3 D. Not provided with overtime wages and double time wages for all overtime
- 4 and double time hours worked in violation of the California Labor Code;
- 5 E. Not provided with accurate wage statements in violation of the California
- 6 Labor Code;
- 7 F. Not provided with timely final wages in violation of the California Labor
- 8 Code.

9 Missed Meal Periods

10 33. During her first month of employment with Defendants, Plaintiff worked the Day
11 Shift and reported to work at 7:15 a.m. and did not finish her shift until as late as 9:00 p.m.

12 34. Plaintiff and the putative class members were not provided with meal periods of 13 at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5) hour work period due to (1) Defendants' policy of 14 not scheduling each meal period as part of each work shift; (2) chronically understaffing each
15 work shift with not enough workers; (3) imposing so much work on each employee such that it 16 made it unlikely that an employee would be able to take their breaks if they wanted to finish their 17 work on time; and (4) no formal written meal and rest period policy that encouraged employees
18 to take their meal and rest periods.

19 35. As a result of Defendants' policy, Plaintiff and the putative class were regularly
20 not provided with uninterrupted meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes for each five (5)
21 hours worked due to complying with Defendants' productivity requirements that required
22 Plaintiff and the putative class to work through their meal periods in order to complete their 23 assignments on time.

24 36. In addition, Plaintiff and the putative class regularly worked shifts in excess of ten 25 hours without receiving a first or second meal period. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff and 26 the putative class with any written policies that advise employees of their right to take their first 27 meal period before the end of the fifth hour of work, that they are entitled to a second meal
28 period if they work a shift of over ten (10) hours, or that the second meal period must commence

1 before the end of the tenth hour of work, unless waived.

2 Missed Rest Periods

3 37. Plaintiff and the putative class members were not provided with rest periods of at 4 least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hour work period, or major fraction thereof, due to (1)
5 Defendants' policy of not scheduling each rest period as part of each work shift; (2) chronically 6 understaffing each work shift with not enough workers; (3) imposing so much work on each 7 employee such that it made it unlikely that an employee would be able to take their breaks if they
8 wanted to finish their work on time; and (4) Defendants' failure to authorize rest breaks, insofar
9 as Defendants had no formal written meal and rest period policy that encouraged class members
10 to take their meal and rest periods.

11 38. As a result of Defendants' policy, Plaintiff and the putative class were regularly
12 not provided with uninterrupted rest periods of at least ten (10) minutes for each four (4) hours
13 worked due to complying with Defendants' productivity requirements that required Plaintiff and 14 the putative class to work through their rest periods in order to complete their assignments on 15 time.

16 Inaccurate Wage Statements

17 39. Plaintiff and the putative class were not provided with accurate wage statements
18 as mandated by law pursuant to Labor Code section 226.

19 40. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(1) as "gross wages 20 earned" were not accurately reflected in that:

21 (a) class members were not paid for all hours worked therefore gross wages
22 earned were not accurately reflected;

23 (b) Overtime and double time wages were not paid for all overtime and 24 double time hours worked therefore gross wages earned were not 25 accurately reflected;

26 (c) Any applicable meal and rest break premiums were not paid therefore 27 gross wages earned were not accurately reflected;

28 41. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(2) as "total hours

1 worked by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that:

2 (a) class members were not paid for all hours worked therefore total hours
3 worked were not accurately reflected;

4 (b) Overtime and double time wages were not paid for all overtime and 5 double time hours worked therefore total hours worked were not
6 accurately reflected;

7 42. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(5) as “net wages 8 earned” were not accurately reflected in that:

9 (a) class members were not paid for all hours worked therefore net wages
10 earned were not accurately reflected;

11 (b) Overtime and double time wages were not paid for all overtime and 12 double time hours worked therefore net wages were not accurately
13 reflected;

14 (c) Any applicable meal and rest break premiums were paid therefore net 15 wages were not accurately reflected;

16 43. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(6) as the “inclusive 17 dates of the period for which the employee is paid” was not accurately reflected.

18 44. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section (a)(8) as the “name and 19 address of the legal entity that secured the services of the employee” was not accurately 20 reflected.

21 45. Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code section 226(a)(9) as “all applicable 22 hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at 23 each hourly rate by the employee” were not accurately reflected in that:

24 (a) class members were not paid for all hours worked therefore the number of 25 hours worked and corresponding rates of pay were not accurately
26 reflected;

27 (b) Overtime and double time wages were not paid for all overtime and 28 double time hours worked therefore the number of hours worked and

1 corresponding rates of pay were not accurately reflected.

2 (c) Defendants failed to comply with Labor Code § 226.2, to separately
3 compensate their piece rate workers for rest periods and to report those 4 rest periods and wages therefor on the wage statement required by Section 5 226(a).

6 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEAL PERIODS

8 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7, 512, and 1198)

9 (By Plaintiff and the Amazon Meal Period Sub-Class)

10 46. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 11 alleged herein.

12 47. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Amazon Meal Period Sub-Class members 13 have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full meal period protections of 14 both the Labor Code and the Wage Order.

15 48. Labor Code § 512 and Section 11 of the applicable Wage Order impose an 16 affirmative obligation on employers to provide non-exempt employees with uninterrupted, duty-17 free, meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work period of five hours, and to provide 18 them with two uninterrupted, duty-free, meal periods of at least thirty minutes for each work
19 period of ten hours.

20 49. Labor Code § 226.7 and Section 11 the Wage Order both prohibit employers from 21 requiring employees to work during required meal periods and require employers to pay non-22 exempt employees an hour of premium wages on each workday that the employee is not 23 provided with the required meal period.

24 50. Compensation for missed meal periods constitutes wages within the meaning of 25 the California Labor Code § 200.

26 51. Labor Code § 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that 27 violate the Wage Order.

28 52. Section 11 of the Wage Order states: “Unless the employee is relieved of all duty

1 during a 30 minute meal period, the meal period shall be considered an ‘on duty’ meal period
2 and counted as time worked. An ‘on duty’ meal period shall be permitted only when the nature
3 of the work prevents an employee from being relieved of all duty and when by written agreement
4 between the parties an on-the-job paid meal period is agreed to. The written agreement shall state
5 that the employee may, in writing, revoke the agreement at any time.” (8 Cal. Code Regs. §
6 11040(11).)

7 53. At all relevant times, Plaintiff was not subject to a valid on-duty meal period
8 agreement. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Amazon Meal Period
9 Sub-Class members were not subject to valid on-duty meal period agreements with Defendants.

10 54. Plaintiff worked shifts exceeding five hours throughout her employment with 11 Defendants. During that time, she was not provided with any compliant meal periods as she was 12 constantly barraged with calls to her cellphone from the dispatcher who wanted to know where 13 she was at all times and who constantly urged her to return to her route. When Plaintiff did take 14 a meal period, it was for less than thirty minutes as she feared that she would be terminated if she 15 did not resume her route duties in the shortest time possible. Based on her investigation, Plaintiff
16 alleges on information and belief that Defendants treated the putative class members in a similar 17 fashion.

18 55. Defendants never provided Plaintiff or, to Plaintiff’s knowledge, any of the 19 putative class members, with a written meal period policy, nor was she ever advised of any 20 informal (i.e., unwritten) meal break policy.

21 56. Plaintiff alleges that, at relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
22 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not providing Plaintiff and members of the 23 Amazon Meal Period Sub-Class with uninterrupted meal periods of at least thirty (30) minutes
24 for each five (5) hour work period, as required by Labor Code § 512 and the Wage Order.

25 57. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and Amazon Meal Period
26 Sub-Class members additional premium wages, and/or were not paid premium wages at the 27 employees’ regular rates of pay, when required meal periods were not provided.

28 58. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 218.6, and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself

1 and the Amazon Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages,
2 interest thereon, and costs of suit.

3 59. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, the substantial
4 benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the 5 Amazon Meal Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

6 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

7 FAILURE TO PROVIDE REST PERIODS

8 (Lab. Code §§ 204, 223, 226.7, and 1198)

9 (By Plaintiff and the Amazon Rest Period Sub-Class)

10 60. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
11 alleged herein.

12 61. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Amazon Rest Period Sub-Class members 13 have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full rest period protections of 14 both the Labor Code and the Wage Order.

15 62. Section 12 of the Wage Order imposes an affirmative obligation on employers to 16 permit and authorize employees to take required rest periods at a rate of no less than ten minutes 17 of net rest time for each four hour work period, or major portion thereof, that must be in the 18 middle of each work period insofar as is practicable. Rest periods are to be considered as "time 19 worked," and shall not be deducted from employees' pay for hours worked. Employees paid on 20 a piece rate basis (e.g., a daily rate) must be separately compensated for rest break time. (Labor
21 Code § 226.2.)

22 63. Labor Code § 226.7 and Section 12 the Wage Order both prohibit employers from 23 requiring employees to work during required rest periods and require employers to pay non-24 exempt employees an hour of premium wages at the employees regular rate of pay, on each 25 workday that the employee is not provided with the required rest period(s).

26 64. Compensation for missed rest periods constitutes wages within the meaning of the 27 California Labor Code § 200.

28 65. Labor Code § 1198 makes it unlawful to employ a person under conditions that

1 violate the Wage Order.

2 66. Plaintiff alleges that at relevant times during the applicable limitations period,
3 Defendants maintained a policy or practice of not authorizing and/or providing members of the 4 Amazon Rest Period Sub-Class members with net rest periods of a least ten (10) minutes for 5 each four (4) hour work period, or major portion thereof, as required by the Wage Order.

6 67. At all relevant times, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff and other Amazon Rest
7 Period Sub-Class members additional premium wages when required rest periods were not 8 provided.

9 68. Specifically, Defendants failed to authorize rest breaks by failing to provide 10 Plaintiff and Amazon Rest Period Sub-Class members with written policies that advised them 11 of their rights to take a rest break for each four hours worked, and/or major fraction thereof, and 12 that rest breaks should be taken in the middle of each work period insofar as practicable.

13 69. Plaintiff worked shifts exceeding four hours or major fraction thereof throughout 14 her employment with Defendants. During that time, she was unable to take a compliant rest 15 period at any time. Based on her investigation, Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that 16 Defendants treated the putative class members in a similar fashion.

17 70. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 204, 218.6, and 226.7, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself,
18 Amazon Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover unpaid premium wages, interest 19 thereon, and costs of suit.

20 71. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, the substantial
21 benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Amazon
22 Rest Period Sub-Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

23 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

24 FAILURE TO PAY HOURLY AND OVERTIME WAGES

25 (Lab. Code §§ 223, 510, 1194, 1197, and 1198)

26 (By Plaintiff and the Amazon Delivery Driver Class)

27 72. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
28 alleged herein.

1           73. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Amazon Delivery Driver Class members are 2 or have been non-exempt employees of Defendants entitled to the full protections of the Labor
3 Code and the Wage Orders.

4           74. Section 2 of the Wage Order defines “hours worked” as “the time during which an 5 employee is subject to the control of an employer, and includes all the time the employee is 6 suffered or permitted to work, whether or not required to do so.”

7           75. Section 4 of the Wage Order requires an employer to pay non-exempt employees
8 at least the minimum wage set forth therein for all hours worked, which consist of all hours that 9 an employer has actual or constructive knowledge that employees are working.

10           76. Labor Code § 1194 invalidates any agreement between an employer and an 11 employee to work for less than the minimum or overtime wage required under the applicable
12 Wage Orders.

13           77. Labor Code § 1194.2 entitles non-exempt employees to recover liquidated 14 damages in amounts equal to the amounts of unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon in 15 addition to the underlying unpaid minimum wages and interest thereon.

16           78. Labor Code § 1197 makes it unlawful for an employer to pay an employee less 17 than the minimum wage required under the applicable Wage Orders for all hours worked during 18 a payroll period.

19           79. Labor Code § 1197.1 provides that it is unlawful for any employer or any other 20 person acting either individually or as an officer, agent, or employee of another person, to pay an 21 employee, or cause an employee to be paid, less than the applicable minimum wage.

22           80. Labor Code § 1198 makes it unlawful for employers to employ employees under 23 conditions that violate the Wage Order.

24           81. Labor Code § 204 requires employers to pay non-exempt employees their earned 25 wages for the normal work period at least twice during each calendar month on days the 26 employer designates in advance and to pay non-exempt employees their earned wages for labor 27 performed in excess of the normal work period by no later than the next regular payday.

28           82. Labor Code § 223 makes it unlawful for employers to pay their employees lower

1 wages than required by contract or statute while purporting to pay them legal wages.

2 83. Labor Code § 510 and Section 3 of the Wage Order require employers to pay non-
3 exempt employees overtime wages of no less than one and one-half times their respective regular 4 rates of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight hours in one workday, all hours worked in 5 excess of forty hours in one workweek, and/or for the first eight hours worked on the seventh 6 consecutive day of one workweek.

7 84. Labor Code § 510 and Section 3 of the Wage Order also require employers to pay 8 non-exempt employees overtime wages of no less than two times their respective regular rates of 9 pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve hours in one workday and for all hours worked in 10 excess of eight hours on a seventh consecutive workday during a workweek.

11 85. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have 12 applied centrally devised policies and practices to her and Amazon Delivery Driver Class
13 members with respect to working conditions and compensation arrangements.

14 86. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Amazon Delivery Driver Class members were 15 paid a set sum of money for their wages, regardless of the actual number of hours worked.

16 87. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Amazon Delivery Driver Class members 17 worked over 8 hours in a day, and/or 40 hours in a week, without receiving overtime 18 compensation for any overtime hours worked.

19 88. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and Amazon Delivery Driver Class members did 20 not receive double time pay for any and all double time hours worked.

21 89. Pursuant to Labor Code § 1194, Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, the 22 substantial benefit doctrine, and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and 23 Amazon Delivery Driver Class members, seeks to recover reasonable attorneys' fees.

24 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE WRITTEN WAGE STATEMENTS

26 (Lab. Code § 226)

27 (By Plaintiff and the Amazon Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class)

28 90. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully

1 alleged herein.

2 91. Labor Code § 226(a) states in pertinent part the following:

3 “ (a) every employer shall, semimonthly or at the time of each payment of wages,
4 furnish each of her or her employees, either as a detachable part of the check,
5 draft, or voucher paying the employee’s wages, or separately when wages are paid
6 by personal check or cash, an accurate itemized statement in writing showing (1) 7 gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the employer, except for an 8 employee whose compensation is solely based on a salary and who is exempt
9 from payment of overtime under subdivision (a) of section 515 or any applicable
10 order of the Industrial Welfare Commission, (3) the number of piece-rate units
11 earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, 12 (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made on written orders of the 13 employee may be aggregated and shown as one time, (5) net wages earned, (6) the 14 inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of the 15 employee and only the last four digits of her or her social security number or an 16 employee identification number other than a social security number, (8) the name 17 and address of the legal entity that is the employer and, if the employer.”

18 92. Labor Code § 226.2 provides that employees compensated on a piece rate basis
19 must be separately compensated for rest breaks and the wage statement required by Section 20 226(a) shall separately state the total hours of compensable rest and recovery periods, the rate of 21 compensation, and the gross wages paid for those periods during the pay period.

22 93. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have 23 failed to provide Amazon Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class members with written wage 24 statements as described supra in this complaint.

25 94. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants’ failures to provide her and 26 Amazon Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class members with accurate written wage statements
27 have been intentional in that Defendants have the ability to provide them with accurate wage
28 statements but have intentionally provided them with written wage statements that Defendants have known to not comply with Labor Code 226(a).

95. Plaintiff and Amazon Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class members have suffered injuries, in that Defendants have violated their legal rights to receive accurate wage statements and have misled them about their actual rates of pay and wages earned. In addition, inaccurate information on their wage statements has prevented immediate challenges to Defendants’ unlawful pay practices, has required discovery and mathematical computations to determine the amount of wages owed, has caused difficulty and expense in attempting to

1 reconstruct time and pay records, and/or has led to the submission of inaccurate information
2 about wages and deductions to state and federal government agencies.

3 96. Pursuant to Labor Code § 226(e), Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Amazon
4 Wage Statement Penalties Sub-Class members, seeks the greater of actual damages or $50.00
5 for the initial pay period in which a violation of Labor Code § 226(a) occurred, and $100.00 for 6 each subsequent pay period in which a violation of Labor Code § 226(a) occurred, not to exceed 7 an aggregate penalty of $4000.00 per class member, as well as awards of reasonable costs and 8 attorneys' fees.

9 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10 FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY ALL FINAL WAGES

11 (Lab. Code §§ 201-203)

12 (Plaintiff and the Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-Class)

13 97. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 14 alleged herein.

15 98. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and the Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-
16 class members have been entitled, upon the end of their employment with Defendants, to timely 17 payment of all wages earned and unpaid before termination or resignation.

18 99. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code § 201, employees who have been 19 discharged have been entitled to payment of all final wages immediately upon termination.

20 100. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code § 202, employees who have 21 resigned after giving at least seventy-two (72) hours-notice of resignation have been entitled to 22 payment of all final wages at the time of resignation.

23 101. At all relevant times, pursuant to Labor Code § 202, employees who have 24 resigned after giving less than seventy-two (72) hours-notice of resignation have been entitled to 25 payment of all final wages within seventy-two (72) hours of giving notice of resignation.

26 102. During the applicable limitations period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff all of 27 her final wages in accordance with Labor Code § 201 by failing to timely pay her all of her final 28 wages.

1 103. Plaintiff was terminated from her employment with Defendants on August 26,
2 2017 as Defendants stopped scheduling her for work. To date, Plaintiff has not been provided
3 with all of her earned wages, including hourly wages, overtime wages, and premium wages.

4 104. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have 5 failed to timely pay Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-class members all of their final 6 wages in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 or 202.

7 105. Plaintiff is informed and believes that, at all relevant times, Defendants have
8 maintained a policy or practice of paying Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-class members
9 their final wages without regard to the requirements of Labor Code §§ 201 and 202 by failing to 10 timely pay them all final wages.

11 106. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendants' failures to timely pay all final 12 wages to him and Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-class members have been willful in 13 that Defendants have the ability to pay final wages in accordance with Labor Code §§ 201 and 14 202 but have intentionally adopted policies or practice that are incompatible with those 15 requirements.

16 107. Pursuant to Labor Code §§ 203 and 218.6, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and 17 Amazon Waiting Time Penalties Sub-class members, seeks waiting time penalties from the 18 dates that their final wages have first become due until paid, up to a maximum of 30 days, and 19 interest thereon.

20 108. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine,
21 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and Amazon Waiting Time
22 Penalties Sub-class members, seeks awards of reasonable costs and attorneys' fees.

23 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

24 UNFAIR COMPETITION

25 (Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

26 (By Plaintiff and UCL Class)

27 109. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully
28 alleged herein.

1 110. Business and Professions Code § 17200 defines “unfair competition” to include
2 any unlawful business practice.

3 111. Business and Professions Code §§ 17203–17204 allow a person who has lost 4 money or property as a result of unfair competition to bring a class action in accordance with 5 Code of Civil Procedure § 382 to recover money or property that may have been acquired from 6 similarly situated persons by means of unfair competition.

7 112. California law requires employers to pay hourly, non-exempt, employees for all 8 hours they are permitted or suffered to work, including hours that the employer knows or 9 reasonably should know that employees have worked.

10 113. Plaintiff and the UCL Class realleges and incorporates by reference the FIRST,
11 SECOND, THIRD and SEVENTH causes of action herein.

12 114. Plaintiff lost money or property as a result of the aforementioned unfair
13 competition.

14 115. Defendants have, or may have, acquired money by means of unfair competition.

15 116. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that, by committing the 16 Labor Code violations described in this complaint, Defendants violated Labor Code §§ 215, 216,
17 225, 226.6, 354, 408, 553, 1175, and/or 1199, which make it a misdemeanor to commit the Labor
18 Code violations mentioned herein.

19 117. Defendants have committed unlawful and even criminal conduct through their 20 policies and practices of, inter alia, failing to comport with their affirmative obligation on 21 employers to provide non-exempt employees with uninterrupted, duty-free, meal periods of at 22 least thirty minutes for each work period of five or more hours and by failing to pay non-exempt 23 employee for all hours worked and by failing to reimburse them for all expenses.

24 118. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and UCL Class members have been non-exempt
25 employees of Defendants and entitled to the full protections of both the Labor Code and the 26 Wage Order.

27 119. As stated above, Defendants have violated the Labor Code in multiple respects
28 with regard to Plaintiff and UCL Class members, including but not limited to failing to pay them

1 wages, failing to reimburse them for expenses, failing to pay them premium wages, and failing to 2 provide them with accurate wage statements, and failing to pay them all wages due upon 3 separation of employment.

4 120. Defendants have, or may have, acquired money or property from UCL Class
5 members by means of unfair competition in that Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon
6 alleges that Defendants have failed to pay Plaintiff and UCL Class members wages and 7 premium wages in for missed meal and/or rest periods.

8 121. The unlawful conduct of Defendants alleged herein amounts to and constitutes 9 unfair competition within the meaning of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.
10 Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq., protects against unfair competition and allows a 11 person who has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or property as a result of an unfair, 12 unlawful, or fraudulent business practice to seek restitution on her own behalf and on behalf of 13 other similarly situated persons in a class action proceeding.

14 122. As a result of Defendants' violations of the Labor Code during the applicable
15 limitations period as alleged herein, Plaintiff has suffered an injury-in-fact and has lost money or 16 property in the form of earned wages. Specifically, Plaintiff has lost money or property as a 17 result of the aforementioned conduct.

18 123. Plaintiff is informed and believes that other similarly situated persons have been 19 subject to the same unlawful policies or practices of Defendants.

20 124. Due to its unfair and unlawful business practices in violation of the Labor Code as 21 alleged herein, Defendants have gained a competitive advantage over other comparable
22 companies doing business in the State of California that comply with their legal obligations
23 under the Labor Code.

24 125. Pursuant to Business & Professions Code § 17203, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself
25 and the other members of the UCL Class, seeks declaratory relief and restitution of all monies
26 rightfully belonging to them that Defendants did not pay them or otherwise retained by means of 27 its unlawful and unfair business practices.

28 126. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1021.5, the substantial benefit doctrine

1 and/or the common fund doctrine, Plaintiff and the other members of the UCL Class are entitled 2 to recover reasonable attorneys' fees in connection with their unfair competition claims.

3 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 FAILURE TO PAY EMPLOYEES FOR ALL HOURS WORKED
5 IN VIOLATION OF THE FEDERAL FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

6 (29 U.S.C. § 201, et seq.)

7 (By Plaintiff and FLSA Class)

8 127. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs of the Complaint as if fully 9 alleged herein.

10 128. At all material times herein, Plaintiff and all similarly situated FLSA Class
11 members who submit Consents to Become Party Plaintiffs are or were employed by and engaged 12 in providing services necessary to driving and delivering packages by Defendants, and have been 13 entitled to the rights, protections, and benefits provided under the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et 14 seq.

15 129. The FLSA requires, among other things, that employers pay employees the 16 minimum wage for all time worked plus overtime. 29 U.S.C. §§ 206, 207, 215.

17 130. At all material times, the time spent driving and delivering packages is necessarily 18 and directly related to the principal activities of the employee's duties, and thus constitutes 19 compensable time under the FLSA and is subject to the FLSA's overtime requirements. 29
20 C.F.R. § 785.38.

21 131. At all material times herein, Defendants have violated the FLSA by failing to pay 22 employees for all hours worked.

23 132. At all material times herein, Defendants have violated the FLSA by failing to pay
24 FLSA Class at one-and-one-half (1.5) times the regular rate of pay when employees total hours 25 worked to exceed forty (40) hours in a week.

26 133. Defendants have also violated the FLSA by failing to keep required, accurate
27 records of all hours worked by their FLSA Class. 29 U.S.C. § 211(c).

28 134. Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees are victims of a uniform and entity-

1 wide compensation policy. This uniform policy, in violation of the FLSA, has been applied to all
2 employees employed by Defendants.

3 135. Plaintiff and all similarly situated individuals are entitled to damages equal to the 4 mandated pay and overtime premium pay within the three (3) years preceding the filing of this 5 Complaint, plus periods of equitable tolling, because Defendants acted willfully and knew or 6 showed reckless disregard of whether their conduct was prohibited by the FLSA.

7 136. Defendants have acted neither in good faith nor with reasonable grounds to 8 believe that their actions and omissions were not a violation of the FLSA. Plaintiff and other 9 similarly situated individuals are entitled to recover an award of liquidated damages in an 10 amount equal to the amount of unpaid compensation, including overtime pay, and/or 11 prejudgment interest at the applicable rate. 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

12 137. As a result of violations of the FLSA's minimum wage and overtime pay
13 provisions, Defendants have unlawfully withheld compensation from Plaintiff and all similarly 14 situated individuals. Defendants are liable for unpaid compensation, together with an amount 15 equal as liquidated damages, attorneys' fees and costs of this action. 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

16 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

17 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, all others similarly situated, prays for 18 relief and judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 19 (1) An order that the action be certified as a class action;
20 (2) An order that Plaintiff be appointed class representative;
21 (3) An order that counsel for Plaintiff be appointed class counsel;
22 (4) Unpaid Wages;
23 (5) Actual Damages;
24 (6) Restitution;
25 (7) Declaratory relief;
26 (8) Pre-judgment interest;
27 (9) Statutory penalties;
28 (10) Civil penalties;

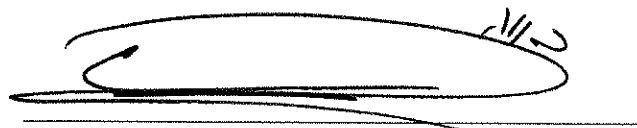

- (11) Costs of suit;
- (12) Reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- (13) Such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, all others similarly situated, hereby demands a jury trial on all issues so triable.
