SUMMARY*

Mandamus / Environmental Protection Agency

The en banc court construed the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC)'s opening brief as a request for mandamus relief, and granted the petition for a writ of mandamus. The en banc court ordered the Environmental Protection Agency to issue, no later than 90 days after the filing of this order, a full and fair decision on LULAC's objections to an EPA order denying a 2007 petition to cancel all tolerances for the pesticide chlorpyrifos, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 346a(g)(2)(C).

ORDER

In its opening brief, the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC)¹ requested, as alternative relief, the issuance of a Writ of Mandamus. The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) conceded at oral argument that we may consider LULAC’s request as a Petition for a Writ of Mandamus, and it had a full opportunity to respond. In view of the circumstances presented by the petition, we exercise our discretion to construe the opening brief as a request for mandamus relief. See Pub. Utils. Comm’n v. FERC, 814 F.2d 560, 562 (9th Cir. 1987) (construing premature petition for review as request for mandamus relief).

Considering the history and chronology of this matter and the nature of the claims, we conclude mandamus is appropriate, and we hereby GRANT the Petition for a Writ of Mandamus. See Telecommunications Research & Action Center v. FCC, 750 F.2d 70, 79–80 (D.C. Cir. 1984) (laying out criteria for mandamus relief); see also In re PANNA, 798 F.3d 809, 813–14 (9th Cir. 2015) (applying the “TRAC factors” in earlier litigation related to this case).

At oral argument, EPA represented that it could issue a final decision with respect to petitioners’ objections within 90 days of an order issued by this court. EPA is hereby ordered to issue, no later than 90 days after the filing of this order, a full and final decision on LULAC’s objections pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 346a(g)(2)(C). Given this resolution, we need not—and do not—decide any other issue urged by the parties. The en banc court shall retain jurisdiction over this and any related cases.
