IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY OF RICHMOND
(Richmond Regular Grand Jury)
John Marshall Courts Building

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA)

v.)

MARK JANOWSKI, DEFENDANT.)

20M-2343/BWS

MOTION

Comes now the Commonwealth, by counsel, and pursuant to Virginia Code § 19.2-192.1, asks this Court to seal the indictment in the above-styled case until such time as the defendant is arrested. Public release of the information in the indictment in this case may potentially jeopardize the Grand Jury process, as well as the safety of Grand Jurors and the defendant. The Commonwealth respectfully requests that the Court enter an order sealing said indictment.

Respectfully Submitted,
COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

BOND AS CONDITION OF RECOGNIZANCE: By signing this bond, the defendant and each person signing as surety agree that they and their heirs and assigns owe the sum of $ $2,000.00 to the county or city in which the case is prosecuted. This debt is: [X] UNSECURED [] SECURED BY [] Cash [] Surety Bail Bondsman [] Property Bail Bondsman [] Other Solvent Surety(ies) whose ability to pay this debt is measured by the value of real or personal property which they own and who further swear or affirm that the value of such property (after subtracting debts that are liens against the property such as mortgages, unpaid judgments, and unpaid tax liens) equals or exceeds the amount of this bond. Each person who signs this bond agrees to the bond terms and any attached applicable terms are incorporated by reference.

The defendant and each person who signs the bond as a surety give up any homestead exemption as to the debt of this bond and understand that the court may force the sale of ANY property owned by the defendant or any surety to pay the debt if the defendant fails to obey all of the terms and conditions of the recognizance. Each person who signs this bond promises to keep the title and possession of all property used to measure the ability to pay the debt of this bond in his or her name and not use such property as collateral for any loan or debt to allow liens against such property which would prevent the payment of the debt of the bond. The terms and conditions of the recognizance are incorporated by reference, and each person who signs the form agrees to obey all of the terms and conditions on both sides of this form. If the defendant obeys all of the conditions listed in the recognizance, the debt of this bond is void. If the defendant fails to obey the condition of appearance of the recognizance, the people who signed the bond may be required to pay the amount of the bond.
