	DEADLINES IN CONSUMERS' AND STATES' AC	PROPOSED] ORDER RE CTIONS IN LIGHT OF TENTATIVE SETTLEMENT 0-cv-05761-JD; 3:21-cv-05227-JD

Plaintiffs in State of Utah et al. v. Google LLC et al., Case No. 3:21-cv-05227-JD
 ("States"), Plaintiffs in In re Google Play Consumer Antitrust Litigation, Case No. 3:20-cv-05761 JD ("Consumers"), and Defendants Alphabet Inc., Google LLC, Google Ireland Limited, Google Commerce Limited, Google Asia Pacific Pte. Limited, and Google Payment Corp. (collectively, "Google"), stipulate as follows under Civil Local Rule 6-2:

6 RECITALS:

- 7
 1. On September 5, 2023, States, Consumers, and Google ("Settling Parties") reached an agreement in principle to settle this case. The agreement is the product of mediation efforts spanning many months.
- 10
 2. The settlement in principle is subject to approval by the State Attorneys General and Alphabet's Board of Directors, execution of a long-form settlement agreement, and approval by the Court. The Settling Parties anticipate submitting a long-form settlement agreement to the Court for preliminary approval in approximately 30 days.
- The Settling Parties anticipate that the States will seek approval of an Amended Complaint that will include all of the settling jurisdictions shortly before or at the same time the Settling Parties submit the long-form settlement agreement to the Court for preliminary approval. Because the long-form settlement agreement is anticipated to include all U.S.
 states and territories as well as the named consumer plaintiffs, the settlement will not require certification of a settlement class.
- 20 To provide the Settling Parties the opportunity to finalize and enter into a long-form 4. 21 agreement and develop and propose a plan for notice and Court approval of the settlement, 22 the Settling Parties respectfully request that the Court vacate the November 6 trial date as 23 between the Settling Parties and suspend the interim pre-trial deadlines as between the 24 Settling Parties (including with respect to jury instructions, verdict forms, witness lists, 25 exhibit lists, motions in limine, deposition designations, factual stipulations, proposed voir 26 dire, glossary of specialized terms, and the joint pre-trial statement). If the Court does not 27 approve the settlement or the settlement agreement is terminated for any reason, the parties

1	shall be returned to their respective litigation positions and will meet and confer regarding
2	whether any adjustments are needed in the schedules for their respective cases.
3	5. The Settling Parties submit that good cause exists to grant the requested relief. In light of
4	the settlement in principle, further litigation among the Settling Parties would waste
5	judicial and party (including public) resources, could interfere with finalization of the
6	settlement, and would create substantial uncertainty for all parties regarding which parties
7	will participate in the trial.
8	6. The Settling Parties note that, in light of the settlement in principle, if the Court grants the
9	relief requested herein, then it need not decide the following pending issues at this time:
10	(1) Google's Motion to Exclude Merits Opinion of Dr. Marc Rysman, ECF No. 484 (Apr.

13	States' Motion for Approval of Notice of Pendency and Opportunity to Opt-Out For Parens
14	Patriae Claims, ECF No. 546 (Jul. 27, 2023).
15	7. In light of the settlement in principle, Consumers have agreed not to oppose vacatur of the

26	reconsider class certification, the Court grants the motion to vacate the scheduled oral argument in the appeal and to remand the case to the district for further proceedings," while retaining jurisdiction over the appeal and directing the parties to notify the Court "when the district court
