We got the jump on the narrative for the banner burning. This should make it next to impossible for them to use the “hate crime” enhancement.

<MessageID 13> No, a bit of the opposite. I've been talking to CID about it. They wanted to know what I know about your group and if I think you all are racist. I told them you are made up of a lot of Latinos and blacks so not a racist thing. If anything I said it's political but then I drew attention to the Trump and American flags that were taken by Antifa and set on fire. I said all those would have to be classified as hate crimes too. It's not being investigated by FBI though. Just us (MPD)
