

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

LIYANARA SANCHEZ, as next friend on behalf of FRENGEL REYES MOTA, et al.,

Petitioners–Plaintiffs,

J.G.G., et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DONALD J. TRUMP, in his official capacity as President of the United States, et al.,

Respondents–Defendants.

Case No: 1:25-cv-00766-JEB

JOINT STATUS REPORT

Per the Court’s Order at the status conference on July 24, 2025, counsel for the parties provide the following update.

Plaintiffs’ Position

Through a variety of means, counsel for Plaintiffs have sought to notify the entire class that we would like to discuss next steps with them in individual calls and, in particular, gauge their interest in pursuing their claims. Since that initial outreach, we have been able to speak with dozens of class members in individual calls. However, we anticipate that it may require several more weeks to reach class members and schedule and complete calls. In addition to the amount of time required to reach class members and schedule calls, the calls themselves are delicate and require a significant amount of time due to the trauma suffered from four months of incarceration and isolation at CECOT. But at this juncture, we can report that many class members reached wish to pursue their cases to return to the United States. Lastly, Plaintiffs would respectfully request that the joint status reports now be filed monthly.

Defendants' Position

The Government reports that two individual habeas petitioners who were detained at CECOT and claimed the United States had constructive custody voluntarily dismissed their cases after El Salvador transferred them to Venezuela. The cases are QUINTERO CHACON v. DICKERSON, 4:25-cv-00050-CDL-AGH (M. D. Ga.) and Bastidas v. Warden, et al, 4:24-cv-00185-CDL-AGH (M. D. Ga.). The Government has no other new information to report.
